Saigon Coup Attempt Is Crushed By Raids

Officers Arrested In Latest Uprising

SAIGON (AP)—A government spokesman said today assassination of key Vietnamese civilian and military leaders was one aim of a plot crushed by a lightning series of raids last night. He reported the zero hour had been set for 11 p.m. yesterday.

Word of the coup attempt, intended to topple both premier Phan Huy Quat's regime and the South Vietnamese military high command, leaked out late yesterday afternoon, the spokesman said. Counter action was launched at once.

The leaders were described as dissident military officers and civilians who had promoted two abortive uprisings in the last eight months — Sept. 13 and Feb. 19.

One officer identified as Capt. Huynh Tan Hung, was killed in the roundup. The spokesman said he was shot trying to escape.

33 OTHERS

At least 33 others were arrested. These included Lt. Col. Le Hoanh Thao, former commander of the 46th Infantry Regiment, which joined the coup makers Feb. 19.

However, the key leader, Col. Pham Ngoc Thao got away, the spokesman said.

Another still sought is Brig. Gen. Lam Van Phat. Both have been sentenced to death in absentia for their previous anti-government efforts. They are believed hiding in the Saigon area.

BROTHER ARRESTED

Thao's brother, Pham Ngoc Thun, was among those arrested last night.

"This is a Vietnamese affair," said a U.S. spokesman, adding that the embassy was aware that several plots against the government and the military command were boiling up.

The spokesman said Ambassador Maxwell D. Taylor had been "fully informed" of developments. He went ahead with a planned inspection trip to the northern part of the country.

The jet plane flying Taylor to the Da Nang air base from Saigon was hit in the nose by a bullet fired from the ground, but no one aboard knew it until the plane landed. One source said the plane apparently was hit during a low-level flight over the Chu Lai area, 53 miles south of Da Nang.

Bigger Role Seen For U.S. In Viet Nam

By SPENCER DAVIS

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Johnson administration is reported beginning to prepare the American public for increased numbers of troops, more fighting and possibly higher U.S. casualties in Viet Nam.

Sources who would not be quoted by name said today it is no coincidence that Rep. Clement J. Zablocki of Wisconsin spoke openly this week of a likelihood of heavier American casualties in the Southeast Asian war.

RANKING DEMO

Zablocki, an administration Democrat and ranking member of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, is chairman of the Far East subcommittee. In that position he is close to administration thinking on Viet Nam.

In a speech to a Washington suburban Democratic club Wednesday night, Zablocki said a decision on whether to use American troops in open warfare there is now being weighed.

Communist forces seeking to score a major victory during the monsoon season may try to drive a wedge through the center of Viet Nam, cutting off the Mekong River delta area and Saigon from the northern mountain area, Zablocki said.

COMBAT ROLE

"In this coming encounter, it may be necessary to use American men in a full combat role, not simply as instructors or in

GETAWAY DRIVER?

Theft Suspect's Boss Is Arrested

By ROSS DAVIS

Albert Leroy Beall, 30-year-old tree doctor in San Rafael, was arrested last night as alleged driver of the get-away car in the $1,400 armed robbery Sunday of Purity Store in Mill Valley.

Beall's surprise booking in county jail came after several hours questioning by police and district attorney's investigators.

Dist. Atty. Bruce B. Bales filed an armed robbery charge against Beall, who resides in San Francisco, at noon today. Beall's cohort and employee, Frank Flint Rogers, 36, has already been charged with the armed robbery and today was bound over to Marin Superior Court on the complaint.

SEES EVIDENCE

Commenting on arrest of Beall, the district attorney said, "There is evidence indicating that Rogers, on leaving the store, was picked up by Beall in Beall's car for the get-away."

Bales said investigation revealed Beall drove near the store and hauled Rogers from the scene, but it was not determined how Rogers originally reached the store. Other details of Beall's alleged involvement were not learned.

Rogers, an escapee from San Quentin's High Rock Conservation Camp in Humboldt County last March 6, has been working for Beall as tree-trimmer. His arrest late Sunday resulted after officers spotted Beall's car on Highway 101 near Golden Gate Bridge.

TOLD LOCATION

Rogers, first booked as James Lee Dugan, was arrested at the San Rafael home of a cousin.

The money stolen in the robbery has been recovered, it was learned today, but where and how was not disclosed.

In preliminary hearing today before Judge Peter Allen Smith in Marin Municipal Court, Dennis Allan Reierson, acting Purity Store manager on Sundays, pointed out Rogers as the man who robbed him at gunpoint. He said Rogers first wore a red bandana mask, but later took it off.

Bales, who prosecuted, told the court that although Rogers was held only on the armed robbery complaint, he will also file an information in Superior Court charging Rogers with illegal possession of a deadly weapon by a convicted felon.

This charge carries a maximum five year prison sentence. Armed robbery is punishable by five years to life. Rogers was serving four terms for armed robbery before his escape.

He was held in county jail today without bail on hold from San Quentin Prison.

Beall, booked by Mill Valley police at 9 p.m. yesterday was held in lieu of $1,100 bail.

Beall operates Beall Tree Service at 914 Irwin Street, San Rafael.

U.N. Requested To Aid In End Of Civil War

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The United States called on the U.N. Security Council today to act in unison with the Organization of American States in seeking to end the civil war in the Dominican Republic.

Secretary-General U Thant read a report to the council from his special representative in Santo Domingo saying new fighting had broken out a little more than two hours in advance of the scheduled 24-hour cease-fire.

HEAVY FIGHTING

Thant said that as of 9:50 a.m. forces of the military and civilian junta were engaged in heavy firing in the northern part of Santo Domingo and that pockets of rebel troops were offering resistance.

At Santo Domingo, the 24-hour cease-fire between junta and rebel forces began at noon, but junta forces pressed their offensive against rebel holdouts in the northern part of the city right up to the 12 o'clock deadline.

Thant said a U.N. representative had been dispatched to the scene.

STEVENSON REQUEST

U.S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson made the request for cooperation with the OAS in a resolution introduced in the 11-nation council. He asked for its prompt and unanimous adoption.

The U.S. resolution noted with satisfaction the agreement on the temporary suspension of hostilities. It called also for observance of the strict cease-

Asphalt Bids Now Showing Wider Spread

Court Ruling May Influence Price Changes

Bids to supply asphalt for road work in Marin County for the 1966 fiscal year came in yesterday without the remarkable similarity that has been evident in the past.

Two companies, Union and Shell Oil, matched cent for cent in bids in all but one of the 11 categories in the specifications, but neither of them was low bidder.

Douglas Oil Co. was consistently low, while American Bitumuls ran consistently high.

OFTEN SAME

In past years, the bids have often been the same from all firms.

In change which appeared when the county purchasing department opened bids yesterday may have been influenced by a court ruling in Florida last Dec. 18.

A federal court there fined two asphalt firms and their executives a total of $30,000 for alleged price fixing. In addition, one of the firms agreed to an out-of-court settlement of $48,976.12.

Yesterday's bids went like this:

On SC-70 liquid asphalt, Douglas Oil bid $21.75 a ton, Shell and Union $23.25, American Bitumuls, $24.25. Price established for the county in bidding a year ago was $24.25.

SAME PATTERN

The pattern was the same in the rest of the weight categories of asphalt. Shell and Union bids were consistently $1.50 above Douglas, and American Bitumuls $2.50 to $3.50 above.

Only exception was the bids on paving oil, where Shell bid $20 a ton and Union Oil, $21.50 a ton.

"Bids will be considered by the Board of Supervisors Monday.

Bids on rock, gravel and asphalt emulsions for construction work were also opened yesterday, with the three bidders, Basalt Rock Co., Hutchinson Rock Co. and Hein Bros. each coming in low on specific categories.

Basalt Rock was low at $5.75 per ton on asphalt concrete delivered at McNear's Point, but Hutchinson Rock was low in the same category for delivery at its quarry south of San Rafael with a $5.80 bid.

Hein Brothers was low on the three weights of armor coating rock at $2.40, $2.60 and $2.50. Hein was the only bidder on rock screening material, at $2.80 per ton.

Hutchinson was low on structural backfill at $2 a ton; Hein was apparently low on road rock at $1.35 a ton; Basalt was apparently low on aggregate base at $1.95 a ton, and Hein appeared low on rip rap at $2.50 a ton.

Big Freighter Sinking In Sea; Crew Is Saved

NEW YORK (UPI) — The 326-foot Norwegian freighter Lionne was sinking in the Atlantic Ocean today 740 miles southeast of Greenland. Her 27-man crew abandoned ship and were being picked up by other vessels in the area.

The British passenger liner Sylvania, enroute to New York, rescued 12 crewmen. Thirteen other crewmen, including the captain, were taken aboard the Norwegian tanker Raila, enroute to Venezuela.

The remaining two crewmen were being taken aboard the British freighter Nova Scotia.

Anti-U.S. Policy Rejected By Tunis

TUNIS (AP) — President Habib Bourguiba of Tunisia said today he has rejected Arab pressure to adopt an anti-American policy.

He warned that he might withdraw from the 13-nation Arab League which, he charged, is dominated by Egypt.

Pickets March Quietly At Riverside Campus

RIVERSIDE (AP5 — A group of pickets, some neat, some barefoot, others bearded, met University of California regents, officials and guests today at inauguration ceremonies for the Riverside campus' new chancellor.

Bearing signs reading "Make the Regents Safe for Ideas," "What is Suitability?" "Less Buildings, More Grass," "Support Your Local Chancellor" and "Adopt the Byrne Report," about 75 pickets marched quietly around a tree.

The signs referred to a report recently submitted to the regents by attorney Jerome Byrne suggesting decentralization of university administration. The signs also protested the report by regent Theodore H. Meyer's committee, which would codify rules of conduct for university students.

An organizer of the demonstration, 20-year-old Downing Cless of Pasadena, a sociology major, emphasized that the demonstration was a Riverside idea and had no direct connection with student disturbances at the Berkeley campus.

"We organized this thing to show support for the Bryne report," he said. "And to show our dislike for the Meyer report. Most of the students in the line have some sympathy for the Free Speech Movement at Berkeley, but this isn't connected with it."

Other organizers of the demonstration were Richard Farrell of Long Beach; Nathan Weinberg of Los Angeles, both political science majors, and Christopher Peters of Pasadena, a drama major.

In the morning, before the regents' meeting, Dr. Ivan Hinderaker was inauguarated as chancellor of the Riverside campus, a position he has held since last September. He previously served as vice chancellor for academic affairs for the university's new Irvine campus.

Clear Skies Due For Californians

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — California skies should clear tomorrow and temperatuers should rise, the Weather Bureau said today.

Showers and thunderstorms were forecast for the high mountains today and tonight and there may be a few sprinkles in the valleys, especially in the central third of the state.

Light showers were reported this morning in Fresno, Stockton and Monterey, and there were thunderstorms in the southern Sierra.

Russell Favors Use Of A-Bomb On Viets

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., looking fit and saying he will seek re-election in 1966, favors use of the atomic bomb in Viet Nam if Chinese Communists should attempt to conquer the war-torn country.

Russell, in his first news conference since being hospitalized by bronchitis and emphysema Feb. 2, said yesterday that if the Chinese Communists force their way into Viet Nam "I would use as big a bomb as necessary to keep our American troops stationed over there from being overwhelmed."

Carrier To Arrive For Bay Area Stay

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — The aircraft carrier Hancock, returning from duty in the South China Sea, will arrive in San Francisco May 29.

No Action Taken On Squaw Valley

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The State Park Commission took no action today on Squaw Valley winter sports regulations after a report that existing rules are sufficient.

The commission adopted a 120-day emergency ruling in February allowing park officials to close ski facilities if necessary. Commissioners had been concerned with the safety of ski area equipment.

Alex Cushing, developer and operator of the ski facilities, contested the commission's ruling at its April meeting and noted that Squaw Vlaley hadn't had a ski lift accident in two years.

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

U.S. Joins Hospital In TB Fight

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — Tuberculosis, believed by some authorities to be near eradication a decade ago, affected almost as many persons in the United States last year as did polio in 1952—a peak year for that disease immediately preceding development of polio vaccine.

Because of government concern, the U.S. Public Health Service has joined with Denver's National Jewish Hospital—a charity-supported institution specializing in respiratory diseases—in establishing a tuberculosis training program.

Preliminary figures for 1964 indicate that nearly 51,000 persons contracted new active cases of tuberculosis. The polio incidence in 1952 was under 58,000. The death rate by tuberculasis in 1962 (the most recent official figures) was just over 9,500.

Visitation Rights Granted Over Dog

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Custody today was awarded to Mrs. Glenn O. Black, but her husband got visitation rights—two hours a week with the family dog.

Judge John L. Niblack's order yesterday permits Glenn O. Black, 63, Indianapolis, to visit his 3-year-old Toy Manchester named Pretty from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. on Sundays.

Niblack, of Marion Circuit Court, added a stipulation, however. With each visit, Black must bring a third party to keep the peace.

Mrs. Black charged her husband hadn't spoken to her for five years.

In the couple's property settlement, Black was awarded the family airplane and one auto. Mrs. Black received the house and lot, another car—plus custody of Pretty.

Human Error Linked To Cairo Crash

CAIRO (UPI) — Human error or faulty landing flaps probably caused the crash of a Pakistani jetliner in desert wasteland near the Cairo Airport, preliminary investigations indicated today. Four Americans were among the 119 persons killed in the disaster.

Reports that one of the Boeing 720B's four engines was ablaze prior to the crash Thursday were discounted by officials of Pakistan International Airlines (PIA). A PIA spokesman said it would be several days before definite conclusions could be drawn.

Egyptian investigators said a check of the wreckage showed the crash was probably the result of misjudgment of altitude or malfunction of wing flaps which are designed to slow the plane prior to landing.

The Americans killed in the crash were identified as Mr. and Mrs. Lewis P. Howard of Sturgis, Mich., and their daughter, Elizabeth, and Donald D. Love, 45, of Riverside, Conn. Love was an executive of Esso International Inc. of New York.

Among the other victims were 26 prominent Pakistnai journalists and nine Chinese Communists. The latter were carrying anti-American pamphlets found in the wreckage.

(In Karachi, a PIA official said today a check by the airline indicated 122 persons died on the crash. A spokesman said 115 passengers and 13 crewmen were aboard the ill-fated plane.)

Six persons, all Pakistanis, survived the crash. Authorities hoped they would be able to help determine the cause of the disaster. The plane was about five minutes short of the Cairo Airport runway when "a ball of fire" illuminated the pre-dawn sky, witnesses said.

A spokesman at Heliopolis hospital said the six were "out of danger and improving" this morning.

The plane was on an inaugural flight opening service between Communist China and London via the Middle East.

HUNTSVILLE, Ala. (AP)—The Free World's largest rocket booster—the Saturn V—yesterday passed a steering-mechanism test preparatory to a manned flight to the moon. The booster was at full speed for 41 seconds, much longer than two previous test firings.

Gun Curb Bill Is Attacked As Hurting Legitimate Users

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Gordon Allott attacked today the administration-backed bill to curb gun traffic. He said Lee Harvey Oswald could just as easily have purchased his rifle from a sporting-goods store as from a mail-order house.

"That gun from a sporting-goods store would have been just as deadly as the mail-order weapon he used," said Allott, a Colorado Republican, in testimony prepared for the Senate Juvenile Delinquency subcommittee.

Two days ago, Atty. Gen. Nicholas Katzenbach, testifying in favor of the bill, told the subcommittee:

"As long as I live, I can never forget that it was a mail-order rifle — sent to a post-office box, that had been rented under an assumed name, by a man with an established record of defection and mental instability — that killed President Kennedy."

Allott and another Republican senator from the West — Arizona's Paul Fannin — argued that the administration bill would penalize ordinary, law-abiding citizens without correcting abuses in the use of firearms.

Allott said he objects to the notion that the word "guns" is "a four-letter, Anglo-Saxon word with dirty connotations."

He said, "Perhaps we of the West are more familiar with firearms and therefore fear them less, recognizing it is the abuse of the weapon that is the real problem."

Yesterday, Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., a brother of the slain president, testified in favor of the bill, saying "it would save hundreds of lives in this country and spare thousands of families all across this land the grief and heartbreak that may come from the loss of a husband, a son, a brother or a friend."

Wigs can be traced back in history as far as 3110 B.C. when they were worn by the Egyptians for reasons of cleanliness and religion.

Kremlin Turns Down U.S. Friendship Bid

MOSCOW (UPI)—The Soviet Union, in its strongest attack on President Johnson to date, last night turned down his recent offer to improve relations between Washington and Moscow.

An official statement issued by the Tass news agency declared no agreement with the Soviet Union is possible while the United States pursues policies of "aggression" and "intervention" in Viet Nam and the Dominican Republic.

On May 7, in a speech marking the anniversary of the end of World War II in Europe, Johnson said "we must work toward agreement with the Soviet Union."

The long Tass statement, which carried the official force of the Kremlin, declared:

"No one should expect that it is possible to interfere in the internal affairs of independent states, provoke armed conflicts now here, now there, commit acts of aggression against socialist countries and at the same time talk about some kind of agreements with the Soviet Union, about ending tensions."

Diplomatic observers said the Tass statement reflected a new chill in Soviet-American relations which could be turning back the clock to the days immediately following the Cuban crisis of 1962.

State Of Siege

BOGOTA, Colombia (AP) — The government declared a state of siege throughout Colombia today to halt student demonstrations in this capital and the cities of Medellin and Cali. The demonstrations started Monday as a protest against U.S. policy in the Dominican Republic.

Hospital Is Cleared For Radio Service

San Rafael General Hospital has obtained clearance to operate an emergency radio service which will provide communication in major disasters.

The Federal Communications Commission granted the hospital permission to operate under the signature KFM 427 on a frequency of 155.340 megacycles.

At first, the service will be used to train personnel in the use of radio equipment in the vicinity of the hospital, reported Dan E. Andersen, president of the hospital board. Later, the equipment will be used "to tie in the hospital with emergency service in the event of a major disaster," he said.

Andersen also announced the hospital has received full accreditation for the maximum of three years from the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals.

The accreditation came after review and inspection of the hospital's medical records and physical facilities in March.

"The maintenance of standards for accreditation within the existing plan is a difficult and costly task in view of the aging buildings, but the board has supported efforts to this end while plans are developing to replace the hospital," Andersen said.

The commission commended the administration and staff for plans to build a new hospital, and recommended rehearsal of the plan for mass casualties, and changes in the medical staff by-laws.

During World War II realistic-looking dummy towns and factories were built in order to lure bombers away from real targets. They looked like the real thing from the air.

Center Bonds Given Backing

Directors of the Marin Property Owners Assn. last night endorsed passage of the proposed $7,750,000 bond issue to build the hall of justice at Civic Center, which will be put to voters in a special election June 8.

The directors took their stand after hearing Marin County Auditor-Controller Michael Mitchell speak on the bond proposal.

President C. A. Stevens reported that the association now has 80 members.

Superior Court Judge Samuel W. Gardiner will be featured speaker at the association's first membership dinner at 7:45 p.m. next Thursday at Dominic's Restaurant, San Rafael.

Honorable Mention

Artist Mae Ralston of Fairfax has been given honorable mention at the Society of Western Artists 24th annual exhibition at the DeYoung Museum, San Francisco. Her works and those by 75 other artists will remain on display through June 13.

Rights Group Names Head For Employment Task Force

The Marin County Human Rights Commission last night named Carl Mosher of Mill Valley chairman of its employment task force.

Commissioners recommended to county supervisors that Mosher be appointed a member of the commission.

The employment group will be the third task force appointed by the commission. The housing task force has completed its report, and the educational task force is in the midst of its study.

Members of the education task force expressed concern over planning of the pre-school program in the Sausalito School District under the Economic Opportunity Act.

Mrs. Sally Garoutte, education task force chairman, said the group wanted assurances the program will be integrated. It said her committee was concerned also because the program was set up without full consultation with the citizen's advisory groups involved, as required by the Economic Opportunity Act.

Commissioners felt the consulting procedure might have been bypassed in haste to meet the deadline to get federal funds. They felt, however, that future planning by the Sausalito School District Board will include citizen participation.

The task force will write the Countywide Advisory Committee on the Economic Opportunity Act and the Sausalito School District board, expressing its concern.

The Marin County Human Rights Commission also:

1. Approved listing the commission's name on a newspaper advertisement by Marin Citizens for the Mississippi Freedom Party asking for the unseating of the Mississippi delegation in Congress. The action was subject to the approval of County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney.
2. Decided to seek a joint meeting with the Marin County Housing Authority and Redevelopment Agency Commission.
3. Heard a report on the operation of the county public social services department and its relation to the commission by Betty Presley, department director.
4. Agreed to seek a joint meeting with the Tiburon Citizens' Planning Committee, Tiburon Planning Commission and other interested agencies to discuss the Hilarita housing project.
5. Passed a resolution commending supervisors for requesting the State Legislature for increased social welfare funds, and suggested that if the state did not provide the funds, the county should continue to "make supplemental payments to meet the needs."

Winter, with its rain and snow, contributes to driving hazards, but the dry months of the year record many more highway deaths. Last year nearly 40,000 people were killed on dry roads, compared with 8,000 killed on wet roads.

Action Begins For Mansion

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The legislature is moving again in an effort to settle the long argument over a new mansion for the governor, now housed in an old Victorian structure on a busy street.

Yesterday, the Assembly Government Organization Committee sent a bill by Assemblyman Tom Carrell, D-San Fernando, to the Ways and Means Committee.

The measure sets up a commission of nine to plan and oversee construction of a new home for the state's chief executive. The committee deleted a provision limiting the mansion's cost to $600,000.

STUDENT HAULED AWAY IN RIOT

Seamen Protest For Revival Of Merchant Fleet

WASHINGTON (AP)—American seamen pitched two wooden boxes fashioned like caskets onto the White House lawn this afternoon.

The mock caskets bore these slogans: "Don't Bury the U.S. merchant marine" and "Revive the U.S. merchant marine."

White House policemen hurriedly carried the boxes to a guardhouse where they were out of view.

After pitching the boxes over a high fence, the demonstrators boarded buses to return to their homes in New York City, Baltimore, Norfolk and Philadelphia.

Earlier, some 1,500 pickets representing eight maritime unions had demonstrated before other government buildings against what they called "appeasing" foreign governments at the expense of the American merchant marine.

Parolee Lands Back In Jail

Robert Lee Bemisderfer, 28, of 28 Olive Avenue, Larkspur, was booked into county jail early today by San Rafael police, charged with possession of a deadly weapon and parole violation.

Police stopped Bemisderfer's car in San Rafael at 2:27 a.m., for investigation of excessive noise. A Japanese knife with a five-inch blade was seen sticking from his pocket.

Bemisderfer was on parole for a narcotics conviction, police said.

Terra Lindan Hurt As Car Hits Another

Robert S. Rose, 36, of 636 Las Collindas Road, Terra Linda, was slightly hurt but refused hospitalization when his car skidded into the rear of a stopped car in the slow lane southbound on Richardson Bay Bridge about 9:05 a.m. yesterday.

Arabella Harris, 52, of Sacramento, driver of the stopped car, said a large sheet of plywood tied to the top of her car had blown off in the roadway, and she had stopped to retrieve it, according to the California Highway Patrol.

defensive positions as in the past," he said.

The result, Zablocki said, "is almost certain to be increased American casualties."

The congressman did not go specifically into the matter of increased troop commitments but that was implicit in his discussion of an expanded operating role.

The sources who read significance into Zablocki's statement indicated the likelihood is high that U.S. forces in Viet Nam will reach 75,000 over the next three or four months.

The number of U.S. forces in South Viet Nam is now approaching 50,000. On May 7, the Defense Department reported a total of 42,200 Army, Navy, Air Force and Marines.

The refusal of Communist China and North Viet Nam to display any interest in the unconditional discussions proposed by President Johnson was cited by U.S. officials as one reason for the broadening U.S. commitment.

Other officials said that if North Viet Nam does become interested in negotiations during the monsoon season, it would be natural that they would attempt to inflict a major defeat on the Vietnamese armed forces before going to the conference table. This was the strategy they followed at Dken Bien Phu with the French seven years ago.

Bitten By Dog

Sgt. Marion E. Waldron of the 666th Radar Sqaudron atop Mount Tamalpais reported to police at 7:35 p.m. yesterday that his son, Anthony Waldron, 18, was bitten on the finger of the left hand by a white St. Bernard dog owned by Kenneth Pratt of 132 Del Casa Street.

Plywood Stolen

Theft of 35 sheets of five-eighths-inch plywood from a construction site at Cottonwood and Fairwood drives was reported to San Rafael police yesterday. Clint J. Brazael, Petaluma, foreman for the Dambo Construction Co. of San Leandro, said the wood was worth $140.

SANTO

fire urged by the Security Council a week ago.

Also at the U.N., the security council rejected a Soviet resolution calling for condemnation of the United States for sending military forces to the Dominican Republic, and demanding their immediate withdrawal.

Nikolai T. Fedorenko, the chief Soviet delegate, insisted upon pressing the resolution.

When the firing stopped in Santo Domingo, for the first time in days, Red Cross crews were standing by to move into the battle zone and remove the dead and wounded.

The Red Cross and the United Nations negotiated the agreement to suspend the five-day battle which has caused a death toll estimated at more than 100.

"I have every hope that this 24-hour cease-fire will be permanent," Dr. Luis F. Fernandez Martinez, president of the Dominican Red Cross, told a newsman.

But the junta president, Brig. Gen. Antonio Imbert Barrera, whose forces have cut deep into rebel positions in the northern part of the capital, vowed to carry his attack into the main insurgent stronghold in downtown Santo Domingo. He hinted this would happen next week.

In Washington, Secretary of State Dean Rusk declared emphatically today that the U.S. is not taking sides in the Dominican conflict despite reports to the contrary.

He told both the Senate Foreign Relations Committee and newsmen that "our policy is one of strict neutrality" between the junta and rebel forces.

"Our soldiers have strict instructions not to return fire" until ordered to do so by proper authority, Rusk said.

Pharmacy Students Receives Award

Ronald E. Grady, 25, a senior pharmacy student at Idaho State College, has received the Johnson and Johnson award for work in pharmaceutical management, according to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Grady of 23 Westgate Way, San Anselmo.

Trustees Eye Closing Of Marshall School

A two-county school district merger which would eliminate the Bloomfield district in Sonoma County and close the Marshall School was aired last night at a special meeting of Tomales Bay School District trustees.

The plan calls for transferring all chicldren from Marshall and from the Bloomfield district to the Tomales Bay School in Tomales.

Parents of about half the 13 Marshall children expected to enroll in school next fall were present for the meeting, reported Mrs. Lois Parks, board clerk.

A public hearing on closing the Marshall School was set for June 3 at 7:30 p.m. at Marshall.

The board expressed willingness to annex the Bloomfield district, over the line in Sonoma County, which had been proposed by the Bloomfield board.

Fifth through eighth grade pupils from Bloomfield are attending Tomales Bay School this year under an inter-district agreement, with the Tomales Bay district receiving $350 per child tuition.

Principal David Raffo said today there are 17 pupils in the four upper grades from Bloomfield enrolled at Tomales.

The Bloomfield district asked Tomales Bay trustees to accept fourth graders also next year. Then, realizing this would leave the Bloomfield School with only a few children in the first three grades, trustees proposed annexation.

About 20 children from the first four grades in Bloomfield would be added to the Tomales Bay enrollment by the merger.

The Tomales Bay board also agreed to accept seventh and eighth graders from American Valley School in Valley Ford, Sonoma County. Principal Raffo said today that eight are expected from there next fall, but of them, two are residents in Tomales Bay district and attending American Valley under an inter-district agreement. Tuition of $350 each would be paid for the other six.

The Marshall School this year has only first through fifth grades, with a single teacher.

Closing the Marshall School, annexing the Bloomfield district and accepting seventh and eighth graders from American Valley would add about 40 to the Tomales Bay enrollment next year, Raffo said today.

Tomales Bay School has six classrooms. One is now in use by the county schools office for a class of eight mentally retarded children.

Raffo said the plan was to ask the county to locate this class elsewhere and to rent a portable classroom, providing seven classrooms for eight grades at Tomales. Second and third grades probably would be combined in one classroom, he said.

American sources said they the Viet Cong were in fact involved.

Meanwhile, nearly 100 U. S. and South Vietnamese warplanes ranged north of the 17th Parallel today, bombing a military barracks, Communist gunboats and a radar site in North Viet Nam.

A military spokesman said 44 U.S. Air Force and Vietnamese Skyraiders set a military barracks aflame about 200 miles south of Hanoi. Raiders hit the radar site on Hon Hieu Island.

Another 25 U.S. planes damaged three 80-foot North Vietnamese boats plying a river near Vinh about 160 miles South of the Communist capital. They encountered heavy groundfire but returned safely.

A jet plane returning Ambassador Taylor to Saigon from Da Nang was hit in the nose by one U.S. Navy planes left one Communist boat "burning fiercely" and another smoking in the fourth day of renewed air strikes against targets in North Viet Nam.

North Viet Nam's President Ho Chi Minh was quoted by the Italian Communist newspaper L'Unita as saying the United States must cease attacks on North Viet Nam and pull its forces and armaments out of the South before peace talks can be considered.

Ho claimed 291 American planes have been shot down on combat missions over North Viet Nam.

At Da Nang, Communist Viet Cong guerrillas ambushed a U.S. Marine convoy a few miles from this air base today, and kept the Leathernecks pinned down for an hour by small arms fire.

The only American casualty was the lieutenant in charge of the convoy, who was hit in the chest.

Spokesmen said his condition was "satisfactory" but that he would have to be evacuated from Viet Nam for further medical care.

Tam Valley Man Injured In Fall

J. J. Mulpeters, 46, of 250 Cleveland Avenue, Tamalpais Valley, was reported in "fair condition" today at Marin General Hospital after falling 10 or 12 feet from a ladder yesterday at his home.

He was treated for a head cut and back injuries.

Tamalpais firemen Robert Davison, Gene Starns and volunteer Robert Irving lowered Mulpeters from his bedroom loft by ropes and stretcher. Davison said Mulpeters fell from a ladder which is the only means to get to the loft, then crawled back up the ladder to his bed. He was taken to hospital by United Ambulance.

Zip Code 'Bargain'

Customs Bureau Proposal Gains

WASHINGTON (AP) — Los Angeles and San Francisco both will be designated as regional offices in the reorganized Bureau of Customs, members of Congress have been told by Treasury Department officials.

An announcement is being withheld, it was said, until President Johnson's reorganization plan for the customs services becomes effective at midnight Monday.

The plan, becoming effective automatically unless disapproved by Congress by the Monday deadline, would eliminate all presidentially appointed customs collectors and place the customs organization under Civil Service.

Former Ike Aide's Wife Kills Self

SAN JUAN BAUTISTA (AP) — Mrs. Frances Anderson, 52, wife of a former congressman and onetime administrative assistant to President Dwight D. Eisenhower, shot and killed herself yesterday, the coroner said today.

Mrs. Anderson's body was found in the bathroom of the Anderson pear ranch home by her husband, Jack Z. Anderson.

The San Benito county coroner returned a verdict of "death by gunshot wounds, self inflicted."

Officers said Mrs. Anderson had been despondent because of failing eyesight. A .38 pistol was found beside her body.

Skateboard Warning

NEW YORK (UPI)—Thomas N. Boate, associate manager of the engineering and safety department of the American Insurance Association, warns serious injuries can result from the use of skateboards or "sidewalker surfers" unless safety rules are observed. He recommends that children not be permitted to use the boards until they are old enough to understand the rules.

Mrs. Ruth A. Doyle, wife of the former police chief of Sausalito, died today in a local hospital. She had been ill for about four months.

Mrs. Doyle, 80 in February, had lived in Sausalito 55 years since she and her husband were married. She resided at 415 Napa Street.

Born in Utica, Ill., she moved to California about three months before the 1906 fire and earthquake and was living in San Francisco at the time of the quake.

MRS. TULLUS

Mrs. Elizabeth Mae Tullus, 43, of Portland, Ore., daughter of Cecil J. Allen of San Anselmo, was found dead in her bathtub at home at noon Wednesday.

An autopsy showed she died of drowning. The case is under investigation by the Multnomah County coroner's office.

Deputy Coroner Herbert W. Ostergren said her body was found by her husband, Frank E. Tullus, 74. He had been sleeping after returning from the first half of a split shift at a restaurant, and was unsure when his wife had begun her bath.

Ostergren said Mrs. Tullus apparently had an epileptic seizure in the tub. He said foul play had been ruled out in the case, but it had not yet been formally classified as an accidental death.

A native of San Francisco, Mrs. Tullus had lived in Portland 17 years.

Surviving are her husband, her father and her step-mother, Mrs. Thelma A. Allen of San Anselmo.

Funeral will be at 11 a.m. tomorrow at the Miller and Tracy Mortuary, Portland. Burial will be in Willamette National Cemetery, Portland.

Rights Worker Going South Without Auto

Pat Hansen of Sausalito was to leave at noon today to return to her civil rights work in Natchez, Miss., but she leaves without her hoped-for car.

Miss Hansen, 19, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hansen of 205 West Street, said she was unsuccessful in her campaign for a car to be used in her work.

Students at Redwood and Tamalpais high schools collected $100 toward a car to be given to the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee which Miss Hansen represents. This, however, was not enough.

Miss Hansen will return to Natchez with J. D. Smith of Nebraska, a SNCC worker going to McComb, Miss., who has been staying in Palo Alto while raising civil rights funds.

Miss Hansen has been home about three weeks to visit her parents and "for a rest."

Visitors Bureau Lists Hotel Units

The Marin Visitors Bureau has come through with the information demanded by county Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen on the number of motel and hotel units in the county.

Two weeks ago, in a strong letter to the buerau, Kettenhofen said if he did not receive the information he had asked several weeks earlier it would put county assistance to the bureau in jeopardy.

Bureau director Clinton De Lap has written Kettenhofen that there are 908 transient rooms in the county, of which 581 are within cities. De Lap also said the maximum capacity for conventions in the county is only 200.

The visitors bureau this fiscal year was allocated $12,000 under the promotions and development section of the county budget. In the budget proposed for next fiscal year, County Administrator Alan Bruce has recommended that this allocation, along with many others, be withheld until the intended use of the money can be detailed.

Planned District Proposal Studied

Larkspur planning commissioners last night read through planned district and planned unit development ordinance proposals and set another study session June 3 for more work.

Planning consultant John David Erickson explained the ordinance draft for the planned district would be applied to residential areas, allowing an everage density but not specifying the lot size or setbacks.

The planned unit development zone would be applied to individual property, not necessarily residential, to allow flexibility by lifting some zoning restrictions in the interest of a better design, he said.

Eisenhower Knocks LBJ's Great Society

NEW YORK (AP) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower says President Johnson's "Great Society" program is an effort "to establish instant paradise."

In an address last night before 500 executives of the National Industrial Conference Board, Eisenhower said the growth of the federal government has been "octopus-like."

Kettenhofen Backing $10,000 For Museum

Marin County Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen has urged that the county Grant the full request of $10,000 from the Louise A. Boyd Natural Science Museum in San Rafael for the 1966 fiscal year.

County Administrator Alan Bruce, in his budget recommendation, proposed the grant should be $5,000, the same as it was this fiscal year.

In a memorandum to Bruce, Kettenhofen praises the activities of the museum, notes the museum expects 100,000 visitors in the next fiscal year, and asks that Bruce review his recommendation.

Kettenhofen said he is aware of the need to keep expenses down, but believes the full $10,000 would allow the muesum "greater accomplishment and benefit to the community."

Passenger Injured As Auto Hits Pole

Loretta Johnson of San Anselmo was reported in fair condition with a broken right leg and multiple cuts today at Marin General Hospital after the car in which she was riding hit a telephone pole about 5:35 p.m. yesterday on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard at Ash Avenue in San Anselmo.

Mrs. Johnson, 73, of 18 Morningside Drive, was riding in a westbound car driven by Leroy Johnson Jr. 46, of Woodacre. The driver told San Anselmo police another car cut in front of him and he swerved to avoid it, and the steering wheel spun out of his grasp.

Dog Makes Four Cars Run Together

A San Rafael woman stepped on the brakes to avoid hitting a dog and touched off a four-car end-on accident about 8:15 a.m. yesterday on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard about 1,000 feet east of Bon Air Road, Greenbrae.

The driver, Adrienne Corwin, 43, of 601 Tamarack Drive, was slightly injured but not taken to a hospital.

Driver of the car behind her, Martin F. Green, 58, of 449 Marin Avenue, Tamalpais Valley, told highway patrolmen he was able to stop after barely touching the Corwin car. But he was hit from behind by a car driven by Amelia L. Walker, 19, of 175 Los Robles Drive, Novato, which, in turn, was hit by a car driven by Brian W. Hood, 18, of 567 Heather Way, Terra Linda, according to the California Highway Patrol.

Presbyterians Aim At Christian Unity

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The 177th annual General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. turned today to work on means for establishing closer links with other Christians.

"The needs of the Church universal in our generation can only be met by Christian people working together," declared a report placed before delegates from across the nation.

Further Christian unity was cited as one of his key concerns.

A wide-ranging series of actions to increase interchurch ties was proposed in a report by the church's Commission on Ecumenical Mission and Relably entered its second day.

It noted that new associations "of an infinite variety" are developing with Roman Catholics in communities throughout the United States, and urged extension of the trend.

"By God's grace we are being led in our time from prudential tolerance one of the other to genuine brotherhood in the household of faith," the report said.

On the morning's program was a message of greetings by Roman Catholic Bishop John J. Carberry of Columbus. Representatives from a dozen denominations also were present to extend fraternal wishes.

The ecumenical report made a special appeal for renewed efforts for reunion with churches sharing common heritages — the Reformed Church in America and the Presbyterian Church in the U.S. (Southern).

Past efforts to heal the North-South breach, stemming from Civil War times, have come to naught. The Southern Church has about 938,000 members. The larger United Church also has about 400,000 members in the South.

"We now know that cooperation is not enough," says the plea to the Southern body, recommending that both branches set up panels to make a new try at unification.

"The action will be a venture of faith in God's will and in obedience to the commandment of the Christ that His people be one," the report said. It concluded with a Scripture quotation: "Come now and let us reason, saith the Lord."

Karate Expert To Serve For Battery Charge

Peter Halaula Kalua, 28, was placed on a year's probation yesterday in Marin Municipal Court on his guilty plea to reckless driving last Jan. 17.

He also was sentenced to serve the remaining 15 days of a 60-day county jail term for the Nov. 17 battery in Sausalito on Beverly Anderson. Kalua, karate expert from Gate Five, Marinship, originally had the jail term suspended last December, but in January it was modified and he served 45 days.

Deer Destroyed After Accident

A female deer's daylight visit to western San Rafael yesterday led to her death.

The doe suffered leg injuries when struck by an unidentified auto while attempting to cross busy Fourth Street in the 1700 block at 1:30 p.m. She fled onto a sundeck of an apartment building at 127 West End Avenue, San Rafael police said.

Marin County Humane Society officers put the deer out of her pain.

San Bruno was named for St. Bruno, founder of the Carthusian Order.

Mink Coat Taken From Novato Closet

Two burglaries, one involving theft of a $4,500 mink coat, were reported today by sheriff's officers.

Deputies said Edith G. Scott of 1041 Third Street, Novato, reported her full-length fur — an "autumn haze" color — was taken from a bedroom closet at the home of a sister, Ruth N. Malone, 448 Wilson Avenue, Novato.

Entry, possibly through an unlocked west window, was sometime since Saturday, officers were told.

Betsy Hoerr, 366 South Morning Sun Avenue, Tamalpais Valley, told officers her home was entered — also through a west window — last Wednesday. Loot included two radios, a tape recorder, $25 cash, a watch, five bottles of liquor, and jewelry.

Dyk's Daughter Condition Fair

Michael Anne Dyk, 16 daughter of Sausalito's Mayor and Mrs. Jan Paul Dyk, was still in fair condition today in Marin General Hospital, under treatment for head injuries and facial cuts suffered in an auto accident Wednesday.

Wendy Ann Evans, 17, of 399 Melrose Avenue, Mill Valley, injured in the same accident, was reported in satisfactory condition in the same hospital with body bruises.

The California Highway Patrol said Miss Evans was at the wheel of the car when it bounced so violently on railroad tracks at Gate Five Road in Sausalito that it hurled Miss Dyk against the windshield. Miss Dyk was listed as driver in the report in yesterday's Independent-Journal.

Blind Vets' Tax Exemption Gains

SACRAMENTO (AP) — A $5,000 property tax exemption for veterans blinded during their service was approved today by the Assembly.

The lower house voted unanimously for a constitutional amendment by Assemblyman Edwin L. Z'berg, D-Sacramento. It now goes to the Senate.

Z'berg said men who suffered service-connected injuries leading to blindness were the only totally disabled veterans who currently do not qualify for the exemption.

If the measure wins two-thirds approval in the Senate, it will be placed on the 1966 ballot.

Helpful Attendant

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — Sylvester Joy, Jr., drove his car onto a parking lot. A man collected the 35-cent fee and got in the car to park it. When Joy returned later, both the man and the car were gone. The parking lot proprietor said he had no employees.

DINING OUT AND INNS

By HARRY CRAFT

Rathskeller In Mill Valley Getting New Name, Owner

Sometime next month, the Rathskeller at 391 Miller Avenue, Mill Valley, should have a new name—and a new owner.

Now in the process of being sold by Margaret Thayer, the restaurant will be taken over by Edwin D. Dixon of Palo Alto as soon as the wine and beer license is approved for transfer. He plans on calling it the Hof Brau.

This is Dixon's first restaurant, though he has managed grocery and liquor stores before. Recently he was manager of a pilot plant for Armour and Co., Kansas City, so he knows something about foods.

He plans to keep the place open for breakfast, lunch and dinner from 7 a.m. to 9 p.m. Mondays through Saturdays, and on Sundays probably from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. The dinner idea is new here. Barbecued foods will be the specialty and dishes will be prepared to take out.

VISITORS TO RAMONA'S in San Rafael these days will find more than one food treat in store, by doing a little inquiring on daily specials before reeling off an order for a tamale or enchilada.

For one thing, may I suggest the "paella Valenciana" of Carlos Arreola, Ramona's recent addition to the kitchen. Between Carlos and Jose Zepeda who specializes in chili rellenos and chicken mole, they're able to cover just about everything that belongs on a Spanish-American carte.

I'm inclined to think of paella as the Spanish version of cioppino, but Carlos corrects me on this, pointing out that the Italians use all seafood in cioppino. No matter, the point I'm making is that paella is usually made up of whatever the particular area has to offer, and no two regions will use the same recipe. Near the seashore it will be heavy with seafoods. Other places, chicken, meat, even rabbit, says Carlos, who for years traveled about from one spot to another with a circus and picked up any number of good recipes, along with two or three languages and several dialects.

The paella he makes at Ramona's is built around a very excellent Spanish rice as its foundation, and you'll find clams in the shell, shrimps, chicken and several other tasty additions.

Carlos has a few other ideas for the menu here—filet de sole a la Veracruzana, for one, and panuchos Yucatecos. I'm not sure, but he may have them started by the time you read this. Ask, anyway.

THE FRANCHINIS — father and son are celebrating completion of their fourth year at the Chateau by Lucas Valley Road, and have chosen Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of next week as days of fiesta. For the diners out on those days, this means champagne with your dinner—compliments of the house.

I might add that there seems to be a good occasion for celebration—not just because of what the Chateau has done for Roy and Nik these last four years — but because of what they've done for the Chateau. They have truly made it into a family dining house—ask the kids who love to go there. They've kept the service smooth and the staff happy—ask the staff.

Congratulations on a fine job.

AND SPEAKING of anniversaries, it seems to me I have overlooked a recent one: Completion of their first year of operation by the Liporis at La Casa Italian Restaurant, San Rafael. And next month, I believe Sal Aversa will celebrate his first year at La Ginestra Italian restaurant in Mill Valley.

KAPPIES HOUSE OF SANDWICHES in Tiburon had to cut up that giant salami you saw on the counter—six ways. As a result of the weight guessing contest ended last weekend, out of some 750 entries, six were so so close as to share alike in the awards.

Total weight of bread and salami was 23 pounds, 14 ounces. It seems that what fooled most people was the weight of the bread, 11 pounds, 12 ounces.

Only two winners were from Marin—Gloria Ross of Belvedere and H. Guhl of Mill Valley. Other winners came from all over — Charles Light from San Francisco; Vi MacLeod from Alameda; E. E. Carlson from San Jose and Irving A. Wirth, clear from Fresno. They'll all get two champagne dinners at Kappies besides a share of the salami.

JOHN SABELLA has left Alioto's Arbordale in Sausalito—he's been ill—and Dick Walters is back as manager. Pianist Al Gallagher returns here next week. But still comparatively new is Chinese chef Leonard Chin, who boasts that his cooking is French. Seems he reads menus and things for relaxation in preference to Confucious' wisdom. More practical for this job, he claims.

TWO-FOR-ONE MEAL at King Cotton, San Rafael, this week applies not to the dinner (that was last week) but only to the Sunday breakfast from 6 a.m. to noon. Any "Red Square" breakfast on the menu, coffee included. You'll need to take the ad on the facing page along with you as a coupon.

All-night hours at King Cotton are now out. New schedule is 6 a.m. to 1 a.m., seven days a week, with car-hop service from 11:30 p.m. to 1 a.m. Dinners served from 5 to 10 p.m.; Sundays from noon to 10 p.m.

MANAGER Mario Brenta at Dominic's, San Rafael, has only good things to say about the behavior of young people — and particularly about the 250 students from College of Marin who sat at the banquet tables of this harbor restaurant last Saturday night. "Not a problem personality in the entire lot," he reported.

PARTNERS Frankie Ling and Hung Huey at the Great Wall Restaurant, San Rafael, have applied for an on-sale wine and beer license. This takes a little while to clear, but it should be effective sometime next month.

Two Man Capsule Was Really Bugged

NEW YORK (AP) — Gemini astronauts Virgil Grissom and John Young were "bugged" by 650 communication engineers of the Bendix Corporation at ground tracking stations around the world.

The interior of the Molly Brown capsule was probably the most completely monitored room in history. Everything—from casual conversation to the astronauts' heartbeats — was communicated by telemetry to these tracking stations.

June 3 Date Set For Four-Day Space Shot

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — The National Aeronautics and Space Administration announced today that Thursday, June 3, is the target date for the four-day space flight of Gemini astronauts James A. McDivitt and Edward H. White II.

Officials had said previously that the flight was scheduled "in the third quarter of 1965," which begins July 1. However, news services have listed the June 3 date for several weeks, based on unofficial sources.

The agency had listed the later period to provide time for preparation and to avoid criticism if the target day were missed.

NASA said McDivitt and White will circle the earth 62 times in 97 hours, 50 minutes to evaluate the effects of extended space flight on crew performance and physical condition.

The agency said it had not yet determined whether White would be the first American astronaut to expose himself to the elements of space from a spacecraft. It reported that the space suit and hatch-opening procedure had not been fully qualified. A decision might not be made until a day or two before launching, the agency said.

If the go-ahead is given, White will open the hatch and poke his head into space for a 15-minute look-around.

Rocket Motor Fire Safety Device Tested Successfully

SACRAMENTO (AP)—A system of quick quenching — with water—of the 6,000-degree flame inside a large solid propellant rocket motor so an endangered astronaut crew could escape was announced today by Aerojet General Corp. The firm said a successful test required only 40 gallons of water to snuff 10 tons of burning propellant in one-eighth of a second.

The rocket maker described the system as a major development in safety devices and as an adjunct to the malfunction detection system for large solid rockets.

Liquid propellant rockets can be shut down by closing off the supply of fuel or oxidizer to the combustion chamber.

Dr. Werner R. Kirchner, Aerojet vice president, said the system could also be used to stop the forward thrust of a rocket to place its payload at a particular point in space.

Tested was a 1,200-pound thrust solid rocket motor used as the booster for the Scout and Little Joe II launch vehicles. The unit, 30 feet long, was running at full throttle.

The water was sprayed under high pressure into the combustion chamber through a nozzle like that in a bathroom shower, Kirchner explained. Test engineers activated the system with rapid action explosive valve.

Dr. Kirchner said the propellant was not damaged in the test and could have been re-ignited immediately.

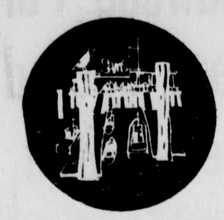

Toledo Facing 'Dry' Weekend In Milk Strike

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — Sale of powdered milk and canned evaporated milk took a sharp upturn today as this city's 350,000 residents headed into a weekend in which fresh milk won't be delivered to their doorsteps or be available at neighborhood stores.

The milk supply was just about dried up by a strike early Wednesday of Teamsters Local 361 against the six major Toledo dairies. The union is deadlocked with the companies in negotiations on a new contract for about 500 drivers and plant workers employed by the dairies.

Yesterday a few stores still had milk for sale — in most cases because they held it back from Wednesday's rush of customers. But by noon the stocks of all the supermarkets and larger stores were gone. Generally, sales were limited to one gallon per customer.

Hamburger and CHAMPAGNE?

Well, not for *every*body.

You have to be 21 and come over to Sam's in Tiburon to get it.

And, if you find fulfillment in the works of Edgar Guest, Paul Harvey, Daddy Warbucks, Jane Addams, Norman Rockwell, and Henry Doelger... you might prefer to stick with Sam's tried and true Burger & Beer.

But if a spark of the bon vivant burns in your soul, your taste will be abundantly rewarded with this bizarre combination.

Sam's Anchor Cafe has even bottled its own champagne for the occasion.

MAYPOLE DANCE FOR PHYSICAL FITNESS

An old tradition with a new rationale was carried out yesterday at San Rafael's Coleman School. As climax to a program showing the physical fitness program of the school, sixth grade girls did a Maypole dance. It represented revival of a tradition, also, for Edwina Codoni, the school's principal. For many year's the Maypole dance was staged every May Day by her pupils when she was principal at E Street and later West End School. (Independent-Journal photo)

State Tax Overhaul Bill Is Sent To Floor

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The Assembly Ways and Means Committee neared a vote on the Democratic administration's budget today after tossing a challenge to Gov. Brown — approval of a billion dollar tax package the governor doesn't like.

"It's not our responsibility to get the governor to sign the bill," said Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh, D-Los Angeles. He argued that acceptance of Brown's proposals would be "fine grist for the Republican political mill, but a poor position for us to be in."

Its' big tax decision out of the way, the committee began taking testimony on the roughly $125 million second, or optional section, Brown wants to add to his $4.03 billion spending program.

Twelve Democrats got unexpected support from two Republicans in voting to send the tax bill to the floor. Considered the biggest revenue overhaul in the state's history, it would raise state taxes by some $350 million but lower property taxes by $731 million.

The aye votes from Republicans Frank Belotti of Eureka and Hale Ashcraft of Rancho Santa Fe was contrary to the position of their floor leader, Robert T. Monagan. This week, Monagan said he doubted if the bill would get a Republican vote.

Cheered by Republican support, Unruh—a co-author of the measure—said he already had corralled 50 of the 54 votes needed for approval of the entire package.

If the Democrats fail to win enough Republican support, the bill can still pass with a bare majority of 41, but the major tax reductions wouldn't be effective. In any event, the measure faces heavy opposition in the Senate.

The speaker still appeared angry with Brown, who sharply trimmed back his own tax proposals last week.

The governor said state services can be financed by a $132 million tobacco tax hike this year and a $141 million speedup of sales tax collections next year. And if the legislature still wants property tax reform, Brown proposed a $125 million levy on the transfer of property to finance it.

Even with those taxes, said Unruh, Democratic candidates would still head into the 1966 election with the state facing a $250 million deficit in the following fiscal year.

He said "the only alternatives are to raise taxes . . . or to drastically cut back in state expenditures. The likelihood of either the governor or the legislature trimming the budget . . . is impossible."

Redwood Park Plans Backed Over Protest

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The Senate Natural Resources Committee endorsed proposals for a national redwood park yesterday over the protest of the senator from the area.

The committee approved a resolution by its chairman, Sen. Fred Farr, D-Carmel, urging the federal government to move swiftly in establishing the park.

The committee revised the measure to eliminate the request for a "great" park. Language also was added noting that it might be possible to establish a satisfacotry park with public stands plus those offered by the timber industry.

Sen. Carl Christensen, D-Eureka, voted against the resolution. Despite amendments, some timber interests and local officials still claimed a park would erode the timber-based economy.

In the 1850s, Redwood City was the embarcadero or shipping point for redwood lumber, cut in the mountains to the west, which was used in the building of the city of San Francisco.

Familiar Plate Leads To Arrest

A familiar plate on an unfamiliar car led to the arrest of Thomas H. Thompson, 18, at his home at 1015 Meadowsweet Drive, Corte Madera, Friday.

Thompson, a California youth authority parolee, was booked into Marin County jail en route to San Francisco about 2 a.m., after Corte Madera patrolman Charles Brobeck learned the small sports car he saw should have had a district of Columbia license plate and had been reported stolen in San Francisco Wednesday.

Brobeck said he had seen the license plate on a car owned by Thompson, and that the sportscar was parked near Thompson's home. Thompson's old car had been reported abandoned in Sausalito, and Sausalito police, checking that car, found the missing District of Columbia plates., police reported.

The youth admitted taking the auto when confronted with the evidence, Brobeck said.

Six Months Given In Assault Case

A six-month county jail term was given Kent Kluever, 21, today in Marin Superior Court for assault in the March 18 attack on William Richard Barfield.

Kluever, of 701 E Street, San Rafael, was charged with felony assault with a broken catsup bottle in San Rafael, but a jury Wednesday found him guilty of a misdemeanor.

The 1964 total of 490,754 resident patients in the nation's 289 state and county mental hospitals represents a 10.9 per cent decrease since 1956, the U.S. Public Health Service reports.

Sanitation Land Given For Road Job

San Rafael Sanitation district directors yesterday agreed to give Marin County 1,800 square feet of district property needed for widening San Pedro Road.

The board approved the transfer of the land at the San Pedro Road pumping station on the condition that the county construct a sixfoot masonry wall at the site.

Norris M. Rawles, district administrator, said the land is needed for the first phase of the joint road widening project by the city and county.

The next board meeting will be June 3 at 5 p.m. when the board is expected to receive the fiscal 1966. budget.

Divorce Granted To Mrs. Wilkins

An interlocutory decree of divorce was granted Mrs. Henry H. Wilkins, the former Dorothy MacGavin, of Ross yesterday in Marin Superior Court.

She charged cruelty and testified her husband, sales manager of Kaiser Steel Corp., stayed away from home for lengthy periods of time.

Judge Ben V. Curler granted her $500 monthly alimony and approved the couple's property settlement. They married Nov. 10, 1939, and separated last Nov. 26. The Ross residence is on Winding Way.

Twin Says Brother Flew Into Rages

PASADENA (AP) — Timothy Nicholson wept repeatedly as he testified at his murder trial that his twin brother Todd flew into uncontrollable rages and twice tried to shoot him.

Timothy took the defense stand yesterday and said. "When Todd gets mad the only thing to do is just to leave Todd alone."

The brothers, 22, co-heirs to the Cudahy meat packing and Pullman sleeping car fortunes, quarreled last Dec. 7 at their plush apartment house in nearby Temple City. Todd was fatally shot. Timothy contends it was an accident.

The husky defendant told the jury Todd first tried to shoot him three years ago during a fight over who would drive a car Tim had borrowed from a friend. They were living with their mother in Santa Barbara at the time.

The second attempt, said Timothy, was last July at Todd's Phoenix, Ariz., apartment when Todd learned that Timothy had brought a girl friend to Todd's rooms.

"Todd flew off the handle," said Timothy. "He got mad and told me to get out."

Timothy said that he was unable to pacify him, and that Todd went into a bedroom and got a pistol. A previous witness, Rita Musgrave, testified that Todd later confided in her that he had pulled the trigger as Timothy ran, but the gun misfired.

Another witness yesterday was Harold Ivers, an Arcadia real estate dealer. He said that 24 hours before Todd was shot the brothers signed an agreement with him to exchange a $300,000 Phoenix office building as part payment for a $1.3 million West Hollywood apartment house.

"They were real nice boys," said Ivers. "They showed a lot of love and affection for one another."

Timothy testified that his brother often became violently angry for little or no reason. On one occasion, he said, Todd threw him and his clothes out of the house, and then drew a pistol.

"I told him," said Timothy: " 'As many times as I've had you at my apartment, I've never, ever thrown you out of my place—and I've never, ever, pulled a gun on you.' "

Timothy said Todd replied:

"Not only have I pulled it (a gun), it jammed, and next time it won't."

Firemen Sent To Blaze Scene Again

Tiburon firemen were called again this morning to 2290 Paradise Drive, scene of a $65,000 fire Wednesday night which raced through three apartments and severely injured one tenant.

Today, neighbors noticed smoke again coming from the building and turned in the alarm at 7:43 a.m. Firemen found a charred couch, apparently still smoldering from the earlier blaze despite being soaked with water.

Cause of the earlier fire is still under investigation firemen said.

Jack H. McCormack, occupant of the ground floor apartment where the flames apparently started, was still in Marin General Hospital today. He was reported in "fair" condition, with first and second degree burns of his face, hands, back and arms.

'Man In Trunk' Says He Was Made To Spy

JERUSALEM, Israel (UPI)— Mordecai Luk, the "man in the trunk," testified yesterday that he received six months of Egyptian training in how to spy against Israel.

But Luk, 31, said he had no intention of spying against Israel and that he took the course merely to get out of jail in Cairo.

Luk is on trial on charges of having spied for the United Arab Republic.

"What do I know about spying?" he asked the court. "Only what I've seen in films."

Luk made headlines last November when Italian airport workers in Rome found him bound and gaged within a trunk heading for Cairo as diplomatic mail. There have been reports that he served as an intelligence "double agent," spying both for an against Egypt.

Luk said he deserted his wife and children in Israel and entered Egypt illegally hoping to get to Australia or Canada. He testified he was caught and jailed by Egyptian authorities, and that the only way he was able to get out of prison was to agree to spy against Israel.

Luk said he went to Rome after taking the course in espionage. But he testified that after some time passed, the Eyptian consul in Rome accused him of loafing on the job.

Luk said Egyptian agents doped him to send him to Cairo, but that he managed to retain consciousness and call attention to his plight. He was saved from the trunk by Italian authorities.

The defendant told the court the Italians gave him a choice of remaining in Italy, returning to Israel or going to a third country. Luk said he chose Israel even though he knew he faced espionage charges here.

Ascherman Files To Take Case Out Of Marin Court

Petition by Dr. Stanford W. Ascherman for an order to take his battle for surgical privileges at Marin General Hospital out of the hands of Marin Superior Court was filed yesterday with the State Supreme Court.

The supreme court has the option of granting or denying a hearing on the matter. First District Court of Appeals in San Francisco last May 10 declined to act on a similar application.

A Marin Superior Court ruling last Dec. 22 declared the case may be heard in court after hospital administrative hearings bogged down for lack of power to grant witnesses immunity from suit.

Dr. Ascherman, through his attorney, Harry Gonick of Oakland, contends the superior court has no jurisdiction.

The City of Richmond began to develop when the Santa Fe Railroad built its yards there in 1899.

Gowan, 38, was Reed District summer school principal last year. He is president of the Reed Teachers Assn. A graduate of Western Washington College, he received his M.A. from San Francisco State College, and has done graduate work at Sacramento State College and University of Washington.

Gowan and his wife, Wanda, a Reed District second grade teacher, live at 232 The Alameda, San Anselmo.

New Zealand Quake

AUCKLAND, New Zealand (AP) —An earthquake of the same magnitude as those that killed thousands of Agadir, Morocco, in 1960 and Skopje, Yugoslavia, in 1963 was registered today off the west coast of New Zealand's South Island. The shock was felt over the southern part of South Island but no damage was reported.

'Too Soon' For Baptist Unity

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The 120-year-old split between the 10.5-million member Southern Baptist Convention and the 1.5-million member American Baptist Convention may one day be bridged.

"Merger has been my challenger this year, but everywhere I hear, 'It is too soon'," the Rev. J. Lester Harnish, president of the American Convention said yesterday.

"Organic union of the Baptist Church groups is the top of the stairway, and we have to start at the bottom step," said the Rev. Wayne DeHoney, president of the Southern Convention.

NEW CALIFORNIA LAWN FOOD

Grows greener, healthier grass

—that you fertilize in minutes!

We got the top agronomists in the State to come up with a formula for a lawn food to suit the climate, soils and overall growing conditions of California. They gave us their recommendations and we created the product: new ORTHO-GRO Lawn Food.

Then we went even further and produced the handiest, easiest way to spread fertilizer yet: the ORTHO WHIRLYBIRD Spreader! Together, the combination can't be beat. Examine the facts: ORTHO-GRO Lawn Food matches agronomist recommendations—item by item:

4% Phosphate—develops strong, healthy roots.
4% Potash—for vigorous growth, vitality.
2% Iron—forms chlorophyll, prevents yellowing.

FASTEST DISSOLVING FERTILIZER YET— NOT A PELLET WASTED

Sprinkle ORTHO-GRO pellets on a moistened blotter and watch them soak in. Other fertilizers don't go to work half so fast. They fail to permeate your lawn, could even wind up in your mower's grass-catcher before they ever got a chance to be effective. ORTHO-GRO dissolves immediately, speeds vital plant nutrients right to the roots.

EASY TO HANDLE, PROTECTED TO STAY FRESH ALL SEASON LONG

ORTHO-GRO is packaged neat and flat...stores away without sprawling all over. An inner polyethylene package keeps pellets fresh the year round.

IT'S ACTUALLY FUN: NEW WHIRLYBIRD SPREADER FEEDS YOUR LAWN IN MINUTES!

Just fill the hopper and turn the handle as you stroll across your lawn. WHIRLYBIRD spreads an 8- to 10-ft. swath as you go. Does away with pushing the old two-wheel spreader. With WHIRLYBIRD you follow the professional greenskeeper's example: fertilize light and often so you get steady uniform growth—no feast or famine.

WHIRLYBIRD covers 5,000 sq.ft. of lawn in ten to twelve minutes—even if you're a slow walker! Stores easily—takes up less space than a gallon of paint. Made of Chevron® Polypropylene—won't rust or corrode.

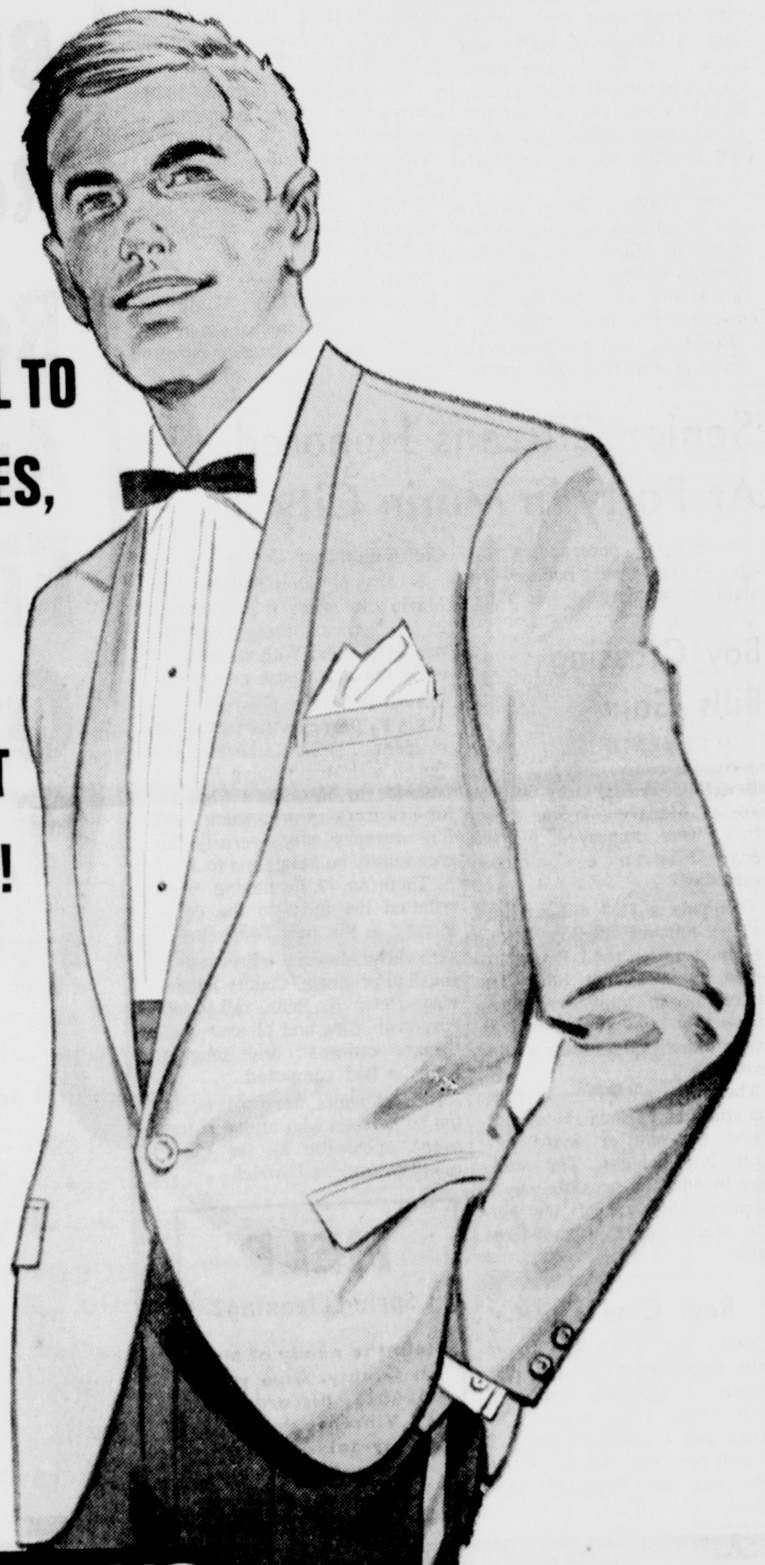

WHIRLYBIRD Fertilizer Spreader $5.95
ORTHO-GRO Lawn Food ..... 10,000 sq. ft. $7.95 ..... 5,000 sq. ft. $4.49

Trustees Delay Salary Decision

College of Marin employees may have to wait until October to find out about pay raises, if trustee Elizabeth M. Deedy has her way.

Mrs. Deedy suggested last night that salary decision be held up until October, with any increase approved then to be retroactive to July 1.

Her suggestion came after a review of the Marin Junior College District budget. She said information about expected district income is too sketchy for an accurate appraisal of salaries

The suggestion brought an immediate charge from Robert A. Becklund, faculty association president, that the college is starting new programs at the expense of staff salaries.

The proposed budget included three and one-half per cent pay raise for all employees. The faculty has asked for a 13 per cent hike and also asked that teachers of night classes get pay parity with daytime teachers.

Non-teaching employees have asked a flat $25-a-month raise.

Becklund said that salaries paid at College of Marin were third from the bottom among Bay Area junior colleges. Napa Junior College District approved a pay raise which would put that district, too, above Marin, he said.

Mrs. Deedy retorted that the cost in salaries per student was higher at Marin than at either Foothill College or College of San Mateo. She said the classloads must be larger there.

Becklund said the board recently agreed that each teacher in the new registered nursing program would have an average of only 10 students in class. "The board expressed no alarm over that program," he said.

"It's premature to talk about three and a half per cent or 13 per cent," said board president Robert E. Oliver. "We haven't made all the budget cuts yet."

In the budget review of revenue, business manager Norman Bird said income, costs and enrollment all will be up about 20 per cent. He said the income figure was inflated, however, by a major increase in the work-study program, largely federally financed. If that program is excluded, he said, income is up only about 16 per cent.

Mrs. Deedy asked for a study of costs of the adult education program, on grounds a special new source of revenue, such as a tax override, may be available if direct extra costs can be shown.

She also asked for an estimate of cost of maintaining parking lots, saying that it may be necessary to raise student parking fees. Bird estimated present fees cover about 75 per cent of the cost.

The board approved hiring Larry K. Baker, instructor in business, at $6,360; Edward K. Schoon, instructor in drama, $7,170; Ruth H. Klotz, instructor in life science, $6,000, and Gregory K. Sims, counsellor, $7,245.

Resignations were accepted from library clerk Sylvia A. Barney, maintenance man Al White and secretary Suzette Ramsey.

LBJ Campaign Aide Tried To Sell Letter

NEW YORK (AP)—The mysterious woman who tried to sell a letter written by Mrs. John F. Kennedy to Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson turned out to be an ash-blonde public relations consultant from Washington.

"I now realize it was an error in judgment," said Mrs. Lucianne Cummings, who worked in President Johnson's campaign headquarters in 1960. She identified herself yesterday at a news conference at the autograph shop of dealer Charles Hamilton. "I was wrong in assuming that a letter from a famous person is in the public domain."

Council Pay Bill Signed

SACRAMENTO (AP) — City councils now have the power to pay themselves certain salaries laid down in a law signed by Gov. Brown.

The bill, signed yesterday, is authored by Assemblyman Leo J. Ryan, D-South San Francisco. At present, voters determine what salaries — if any — city councilmen receive.

Ryan's measure would require voter approval of any pay above or below the schedule in his bill. It ranges from $75 a month to $300 a month, depending on a city's size.

Senior Citizens Honored At Party In Marin City

Twenty-five persons between ages 65 and 85 were honored last night at a party at the Marin City Community Center.

Several of them had lived in Marin City since it was started in 1942. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. John Walton, who lived in the first house completed.

Awards were presented by Jesse E. Berry to the two oldest residents, Mrs. Katherine McQueen and Mrs. Goldyn Fowler, both 82; to Mrs. Rosa Ray, 72, for her work in organizing food for workers who reroof the community building, and to John A. Thomson, 72, for having "contributed the most to the community in the past few years."

Beverly Barnes directed a musical program. County Supervisor Peter H. Behr, talked on responsibilities and pleasures of "senior citizens" and sang a song he had composed.

Refreshments were served to the 50 persons who attended the event, sponsored by the Community Services District.

Bay Crossing Bills Gain

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Two more bills concerning San Francisco Bay crossings, by Sen. J. Eugene McAteer, D-San Francisco, were approved by the Senate Finance Committee yesterday.

One puts a $133 million limit on the amount of Bay Bridge revenues to be used for a proposed rapid transit tube. The effect is to make revenues above that sum available to finance new southern bay crossings.

The other authorizes a $300,000 study of various routes proposed for one or more new south bay bridges. The study may include the possible use or supplementary use of new surface craft that skim above the water.

Lagunitas Family Leaves For Canada

By CHARLINE SUTTON

A family of westerners (West Marin) headed north this week — to homestead in British Columbia.

Their "covered wagon" was a four-wheel drive Jeep, bearing parents Lowell and Suzanne, four children, Lowell E. Jr., 11, Erik, 10, Diane, 9, Steven, 8, and their German Shepherd mascot, Lobo.

Pulled along behind in a tarp-covered trailer were family belongings, and a tent in which they stay while they check out a land where towns are named Woodpecker, Horsefly and Hydraulic, and where mink, beaver, muskrat and bear abound.

Although their eventual intent is to find and develop a homestead, the Hendricksons will settle first in the 5,000-population town of Quesnel, a farming community about 250 miles north of Vancouver. There Lowell, a former carpenter, builder and pool service man, hopes to get a job. Plans also include developing a family business preparing animal skins, Hendrickson being handy with a gun.

The decision to emigrate came last summer when the Hendricksons returned from a camping trip through British Columbia and Alaska. Their original choice was the Peace River Valley near Dawson and several friends talked of joining the trek to form a Marinite homesteaders' colony. Friends went to other corners of the globe (one was James Acheson of Fairfax, who recently made headlines attempting an ill-fated walk from Nome to Fairbanks). So the Hendricksons decided on a "trial run, living in the country, working there and getting to know it better before homesteading."

Did the children, who were all feted by classmates at the Lagunitas School last week, like the idea of the move north?

According to Mrs. Hendrickson's father, Samuel N. LeCount, counselor at College of Marin, "They've been so wound up and excited the past week you could hardly talk to them. Frankly, I think they all expect to find gold and live in beaver skins."

Recreation Summer Plan Is Approved

Recreation director Robert C. Bundy last night presented a summer program to the Larkspur-Corte Madera Joint Recreation Commission, now that a $3,400 contribution from the town of Corte Madera has assured there will be a summer program.

The commission approved the program for maintaining playground activities at Larkspur-Corte Madera, Neil Cummins, Henry C. Hall and San Clemente schools of the Larkspur School District and Greenbrae School of the Kentfield District.

Other activities will be determined by the interest shown by children using facilities at each school, Bundy said.

Loyalty Oath Repeal Killed

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Lack of a second to a motion for approval has defeated a measure repealing the state loyalty oath required of elected and appointed officials.

The constitutional amendment by Assemblyman John Burton, D-San Francisco, came up in the Assembly Government Organization Committee today, but died when no one seconded a motion to send it to the floor.

The same bill died in 1963.

Governor Brown Signs Two Bagley Measures

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO — A bill that gives community services districts the power to abate fire hazards has been signed into law by Gov. Edmund G. Brown.

The bill, AB 1922, was introduced by Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael.

It authorizes the governing board of community services district to clear or order the clearing of debris or grass or other flammable material if it is considered a fire hazerd.

Another Bagley bill which the governor has signed into law is AB 765, which pertains to county financial aid to Sausalito School District, because the Marin City redevelopment project is located in the district.

The county's financial aid (about $9,000 per year) to the Sausalito School District would have ended this year. AB 765 extends the aid through 1967.

New Marine Unit Studied

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A new Marine Corps division is being seriously considered by the Defense Department, the Los Angeles Times said today.

The unit would be created from Marine reserve units scattered throughout the nation.

(The Pentagon in Washington, however, said "There are no plans at this time to call Marine Corps Reserves.")

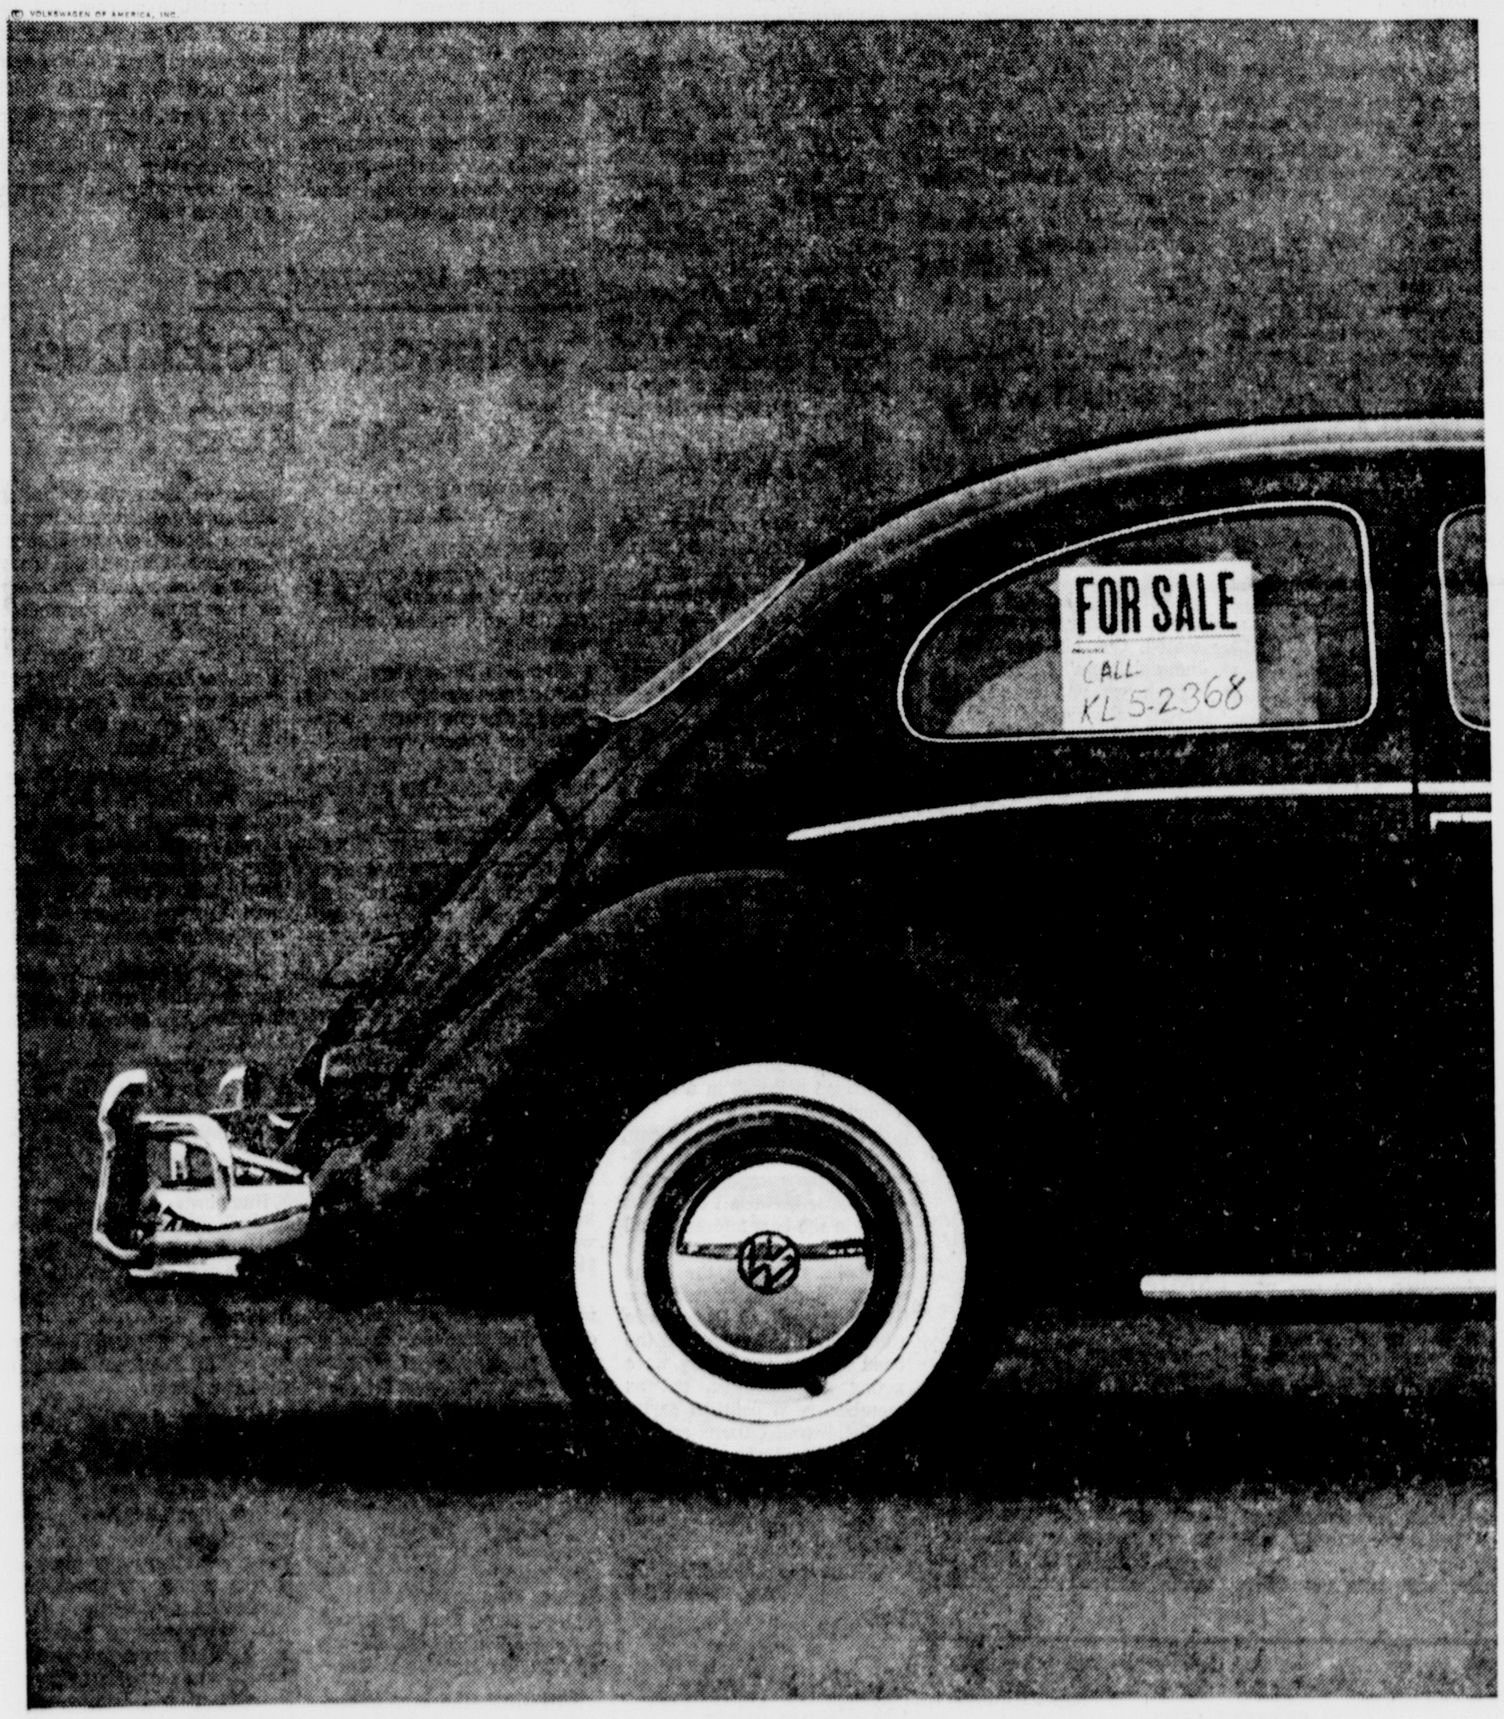

The by-lined story by Julian Hartt said formation of the division is likely because of the "imminent" deployment of the 1st Marine Division from Camp Pendleton to Okinawa.

A new Volkswagen doesn't depreciate wildly the minute you turn the key.

In a sense, the older it gets the more valuable it gets.

So that in 5 years, the same VW will be worth more than some 5-year-old cars that cost twice as much to begin with.

One reason is that it takes a real car nut to tell a clean used one from a new one.

VWs always look like VWs.

Another reason is that they hold up.

A VW is put together so well, it's practically airtight. (It helps to open a window to close a door. Even on old ones.)

And, new VW or old, there's all that nice money you keep saving on gas, oil, tires, insurance, and repairs.

Which means you can get a nice price for it. (If, for some strange reason, you'd want to sell.)

It's the kind of economy that people are willing to pay an arm and a leg for.

Fiscal Sense Needed In Supervisors' Heads

"What can be done to get more fiscal sense in the heads of some school district and special district governing boards?

"Or should some heads be knocked together? How much longer will people tolerate single purpose entities which are not required to make choices and to balance competing demands for many purposes?"

The quotation is from County Administrator Alan Bruce's message accompanying his fiscal 1966 budget proposal, which was placed before the county board of supervisors on Tuesday.

At that same Tuesday meeting, the board voted unanimously to grant pay raises of $4,400 per year to the county counsel, $2,100 per year to the director of community health services, and $1,200 per year to the county health officer.

The county counsel's raise, the largest of the three, is particularly interesting.

The office of county counsel was created by 3-to-2 vote of the board of supervisors in 1957, to take over functions previously performed by the civil division of the district attorney's office. Supervisors Vera L. Schultz, William A. Gnoss and Walter R. Castro voted to create the office. Supervisors William D. Fusselman and James A. Marshall opposed it, as did the district attorney, William O. Weissich.

The county grand jury then in office, of which William Herup was foreman, blasted the proposal as "needless expense to the taxpayers which will run into thousands of dollars yearly." It noted the office would start with a payroll of $36,960 per year, in office space rented at $300 per month.

Leland H. Jordan, who as chief deputy district attorney had been handling civil matters for the board of supervisors, was named county counsel at $12,000 per year, with automatic increases provided to increase his pay to $13,800 at the end of four years.

E. Warren McGuire was named assistant county counsel at $629 per month; Robert Smallman, deputy counsel at $450. Both had been deputies in the district attorney's office.

When Jordan resigned Oct. 11, 1960, he was receiving $13,500 per year. On his recommendation, McGuire was named to succeed him at $13,800.

The following April 10, McGuire asked that his pay be raised to $15,900 for the 1962 fiscal year and $17,100 for the 1963 fiscal year. County Administrator Bruce disagreed and recommended the county counsel be paid $14,700 for the 1962 fiscal year, $15,300 for the 1963 fiscal year and $15,900 for the 1964 fiscal year.

The board of supervisors agreed with Bruce. McGuire, then at $14,700 per year, resigned effective Jan. 1, 1961, and Douglas J. Maloney, who had joined the office as deputy, was named county counsel at the same pay.

Raises the following two years brought Maloney's pay to $17,600 per year. From that it was raised Tuesday, effective July 1, to $22,000, with a proviso that two years later it will go to $24,000.

The budget for the county counsel's office for next fiscal year, as recommended by Bruce, totals $72,264. Of this, $66,074 is for salaries, including the counsel, one assistant, two deputies (an additional deputy requested by Maloney, as the office has had only one assistant and one deputy since its creation), and three stenographers.

However, this total includes Maloney's salary at his present rate—not at the $22,000 he will receive effective July 1. Thus, with no raise for assistant or deputies, the budget is short $4,400 per year before the supervisors even begin to study it.

Were this an isolated case, it might be justified by special circumstances. However, the fact that two other large raises were voted by the supervisors before studying the budget seems to indicate a trend.

Bruce himself last January received a $5,000 raise, to $21,000 per year. It appears logical he will get another to at least put him at parity with the county counsel.

Although the county administrator's words accompanying the budget message were directed at school boards and directors of special districts, might they not, by dropping a few words, be applied to the supervisors?

"What can be done to get more fiscal sense in the heads of . . . governing boards?"

Red China Keeps Busy Working For Revolutions In Africa

NAIROBI, Kenya—You can't be in sub-Sahara Africa long without detecting the feverish activity of the Chinese Communists.

They are busy at their work.

THEIR GUIDING premise is that "Africa is ripe for revolution"—if not right now, then soon.

Peking is beaming more radio propaganda to Africa than to anywhere outside mainland China, is raising its level of trade and aid, is bidding the younger African rebels to China in increasing numbers, and is putting more of its most experienced diplomats into the new African nations than anywhere in the world.

One-third of all Red China's 46 diplomatic missions are in Africa and its "ambassadors" posted there have far longer training than those sent to Asia, the Middle East or Europe.

WHAT ARE they after? Most Western diplomats see the Chinese purposes as these:

To build a Peking-oriented alliance between Africa, Asia and Latin America to the benefit of Peking and to the detriment of Washington and Moscow.

To wrest the leadership of the underdeveloped nations from Soviet hands and to label Russia as a "white European imperialist power."

To back internal revolts against every unstable African nation they can penetrate and thus to be in a position to take control on the premise that the present African governments will fall into chaos (with some Chinese help) and will crack amid spreading violence.

PEKING GOES about it by providing arms and money to assist African dissidents trying to upset the status quo from Zanzibar to Morocco; they seek to foment chaos on borders between Tanganyika and Mozambique; they maintain a guerrilla training camp on the frontiers of the Congo; they are free with financial aid to dissident Africans whom they hope to make future allies and agents.

Unlike the Russians, who for the most part deal straightforwardly with existing governments, the Chinese lean primarily on intrigue and revolutionary tactics.

Are the Red Chinese succeeding? The answer is that thus far the dividends are small compared to the effort and financial cost.

THEIR SHARPEST setback was in Zanzibar. They engineered a coup and then lost it to the Soviets, who outmaneuvered them through the East Germans. Now, with the merger of Tanganyika and Zanzibar, President Julius Nyerere seems to be slowly though precariously regaining control of the Communist-leaning federation. The Chinese are increasingly unpopular here in Kenya and in neighboring Uganda.

Peking's failures outweigh her relative success, but the danger of Chinese Communist subversion in Africa is a near and menacing peril to which chaos would be an open door. It can be averted only if visible economic progress can keep reasonably stable governments in power.

Friends Pay Tribute To Late Mrs. Links

Editor, Independent-Journal:

A very dear first lady of Novato has died. All of us who had the honor and privilege to know Mrs. Juliette (Jay) Links were shocked at her sudden death last week.

We want to make this letter a tribute to the tiny, little lady who always had a smile, and such a gracious manner about her. Both young and old alike can tell of the countless times she and Mr. Links, of Links Men's Store, offered a helping hand to a stranger, or someone new in town, or those down on their luck. All of us in Novato will miss her.

To Mr. Links and her two sons, we offer, at this time when words are empty, our heartfelt sympathies. The grief they feel is shared by their many friends. If it will help any, we want to say to them that Jay was a true lady, and she, and her goodness and kindness, shall live and remain in the heart of Novato always.

Skateboards Fun Stoutly Defended

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I am a girl of 12 and very much interested in the skateboard debate. I have considered all the dangerous things about skateboards and have come to a conclusion that they should not be outlawed.

Policemen have said that too many accidents have occurred. . . . If those are the reasons for banning it, why not ban bikes? During two years of skateboarding, only one person has been killed. And in one year of bike riding, at least 15 children have been killed. And what about water skiing, snow skiing and surfing? . . .

I almost killed myself when a surfboard almost hit my neck. They didn't ban that. A boy got killed when he was water skiing and a boat ran over him. They didn't ban that. . . .

There are so many other sports that are more dangerous than skateboarding which are not banned. If skateboards bother so many older people, why don't they stop to think of their childhood? If someone took away a sport they loved and had fun with, they would think twice before taking away our fun.

Long live the skateboards and skateboarders!

Ambulance Charges Schedule Too High?

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Recently our two daughters and a neighbor girl (all under age 6) were taken from an accident in Corte Madera to Marin General Hospital by a Marin County ambulance service. The neighbor girl was laid down, and our two girls were seated. Our bill was $40 and the neighbors' was $30. Although we will not be ultimately responsible for this bill, we felt the $70 charge to be grossly out of line. In discussing this with the ambulance concern, we were advised that the bill should have been for $90.

We contacted various local and county agencies for information and assistance. While all felt the charge to be excessive, we were surprised that none could advise as to whether the rates were regulated.

It would seem to us that since this service is not subject to "competitive shopping," it would be subject to some type of control.

Proof Of Anti-U.N. Statements Sought

Editor, Independent-Journal:

In reply to Maria L. Cochran's letter on May 17. . . .

First, before one calls Mr. Wiley "a subversive element," or the United Nations' flag a rag, or the United Nations a "free forum for commies to insult our nation," one should be able to back up such statements. Certainly Mr. Wiley has been slandered unfairly and the comments on the United Nations are personal views of a small faction.

Secondly, Mr. Wiley was not "forcing" anything on anyone nor was he trying to brainwash our children. When Del Mar School "went as far as to put up a ceremony," they may have simply been observing the U.N., which isn't brainwashing. No one "forced" anything on those children.

Thirdly, she said "schools should teach patriotism, Americanism," and "pride in Old Glory." I agree. Schools should teach it objectively or this, in a sense, is also "brainwashing."

Fourthly, if the U.N. was a forum for slander only, the U.S. wouldn't be represented. UNICEF feeds hungry children, not potential "commies." Is that a forum for slander?

Lastly, in the observance of an American Ideal she should not slander the United World Federalists because their ideals should be respected as much as I respect hers.

And if Mrs. (?) Cochran is to follow Americanism, then Mr. Wiley has every right to take her to Court, which I encourage him to do.

Civic Center Backing Called Non-Partisan

Editor, Independent-Journal:

The action of a local political group endorsing the Civic Center bond issue was termed "partisan politics" in a recent editorial.

I am a lifelong Republican, and I am serving as co-chairman of the campaign for the bond issue because I believe it to be in the best interest of all the people of the county.

I believe this is the same spirit which motivated the Marin Council of Democratic Clubs when they endorsed the bond issue. I think they were acting as Marinites, not as members of a political party.

I believe all citizens and all groups not only have the right but also have the duty to take a non-partisan stand on issues of such importance to the county we all love.

Education Enemy Of Communists

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I would like to comment on Maria Cochran's letter in your May 17th issue:

This so-called U.N. rag represents an organization which, through one of its channels, is trying to educate millions of people the world over. Education is the biggest enemy of the Communist Party, so how can the U.N. be of such great advantage to them?

I wonder if this woman would rather our children honor the hammer and sickle or perhaps a bundle of rods secured by red twine.

A very famous American once said, "Fascism will come in the form of 100 per cent Americanism." I wonder — is she that patriotic?

Johnson Friend Due To Keep FCC Post

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — President Lyndon B. Johnson is about to pay an old personal and political debt with a choice patronage plum.

Slated to be appointed to a third (seven-year) term is Federal Communications Commissioner Robert Bartley—56-year-old Texan and nephew of the late Speaker Sam Rayburn, long-time mentor and political benefactor of the president.

BARTLEY ALSO is a close friend of the president and Mrs. Johnson—principal owner of highly profitable radio-TV properties in Texas.

When first named to the FCC by President Harry Truman, Bartley was administrative assistant to Rayburn. He took office in March, 1952. In July of that year, the FCC granted Mrs. Johnson a license for an Austin, Tex., TV station that has affiliations with the three national networks and is the keystone of the Johnson wealth, estimated at more than $10 million.

Bartley's term expres next month. Democratic politicos deem this prize so definitely sewed up, because of the personal factors involved, they are not even conjecturing about it.

President Dwight D. Eisenhower gave Bartley his second term in 1958. At that time, with the Democrats in control of Congress, Rayburn was speaker of the House and Johnson majority leader of the Senate. They operated in closest harmony, and generally supported the Republican administration's foreign policy.

BARTLEY HAS been in and out of government service since the age of 22, when he came to Washington as statistician on the staff of Walter Splawn, special counsel for the House Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee. When Splawn was made a member of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Bartley went with him. In 1934, when the New Deal created the Federal Communications Commission, he got a job as head of its telegraph division.

From there he shifted to the new Securities and Exchange Commission. In 1948, Bartley became administrative assistant of his uncle, Speaker Rayburn, and stayed with him until Truman appointed him communications commissioner.

FOUR MONTHS as vice president has made a marked difference in Hubert Horatio Humphrey.

As a senator, the voluble Minnesotan assiduously wooed the press, was one of the most accessible and communicative members of Congress. But that's all changed now.

Humphrey has become as elusive and unresponsive as a fleeting shadow. He has completely switched from a hearty open-door policy to a virtual black-out.

FORMER REPUBLICAN National Chairman Dean Burch is telling friends he is considering running against Rep. Morris Udall, D-Ariz., next year. Udall, brother of the interior secretary, has his eye on the Senate, is biding his time to go after that.

David Acheson, U.S. attorney in Washington and son of the one-time secretary of state, is busily pulling wires to be named general counsel of the treasury.

SENATE FINANCE Committee leaders have told the president they will report out his medicare bill around June 1, virtually in the same form it was passed by the House early in April. According to them, the committee is overwhelmingly for the legislation and will act on it quickly after hearings on it are completed this week.

Former Ohio Gov. Michael DiSalle has written two books. One due to be published in the fall is titled "Power of Life or Death" and deals with his experience in handling cases involving death sentences. The second book, titled "Second Choice," will be published next spring and is about vice presidents who succeeded to the presidency.

Jordan Claims Rafferty Not Eyeing Governorship

By WAT TAKESHITA

MAX RAFFERTY, state superintendent of public instruction, is not eyeing the governorship or any other partisan state job. He's interested only in re-election to his present post next year.

This flat prediction comes from Secretary of State Frank Jordan, the top Republican office holder in the state.

Takeshita

Jordan's assurance doesn't exactly jibe with some of the rumors that have been floating around.

For example, there's been considerable talk about Rafferty's interest in the governorship. Lately, there's some speculation that, if Secretary of State Jordan (who will be 77 in August) decides to step out, wouldn't that post provide a nice slot for Rafferty.

THIS CREATES speculation on something closer to home. Marin School Supt. Virgil Hollis has been rumored as a possible for some state post. In fact, some politicians of state-wide prominence were reported sounding out Hollis' plans for 1966.

But from what we can gather, Dr. Hollis is happy with his county job in Marin, and has no plans to enter state-wide politics.

ASSEMBLYMAN William T. Bagley's stubborn assault on the state controller's inheritance tax appraiser system, and Controller Alan Cranston's biting rejoinder are adding fuel to the rumor—that Bagley might try for the controller's job.

ROGER GARETY, because of his long years as prosecutor, has a pretty good grasp of how drunks and other law violators act. An excellent illustration of his grasp of the situation was the realistic manner in which he portrayed a drunk scene in the Ross Valley Players' latest production.

The latter maintained that steering a ship was a lot easier than looking after the engines, whereas the captain asserted that engines were child's play compared with steering. They decided to settle the argument by changing places.

After 10 minutes the captain was ready to concede defeat. "Macpherson," he shouted, "I can't get these darn engines to start." "Don't bother," called back the engineer dispiritedly. "We're aground."

Young Fellow Provides Insight On Thinking Of Teen-Agers

THE OTHER day we had no note for the notebook. So we went to Lytton Square and found Chris Hackney, whom we'd never met, sitting in the tiny park writing a letter.

Hackney, 17, is a young man with long hair, black pointed boots, "many debts" and who plays blues on guitar.

"I have to write this letter," he said. Asked if he could talk a few minutes, he said, "Sure, I'll talk to anybody" and put down his pen.

CHRIS GOES to Tamalpais High in mornings and works afternoons, six days a week, in Pat and Joe's restaurant. He washes dishes and peels potatoes under the school's work experience program, he said. He is to be graduated in June.

Asked what he will do then, he replied, "First I will get a full-time job and pay off all my debts. I will take guitar lessons. I plan to go to Colorado for a while and, later, return to San Francisco to attend college.

"I may get a job in a grocery store or join a carpenter's union. I will keep traveling and working until I find what I want to do.

"I DON'T really know what I want to be. I have no goal. My parents want me to go to college. Financially, I can't right now. I want to get out of debt."

He said he has had two motorcycles and four cars and still owes money on some.

Hackney had a paperback book in his hand, "Meet Soviet Russia" by John Gunther which he said he will do a report on and he recently read and reported on J. Edgar Hoover's "Masters of Deceit."

"I WANT to learn how to read and play some good blues," he continued. He said, "I have written a couple of songs, just the tunes, but music is just a hobby." He has a girl friend, he said.

Asked about his hair, which is about five inches long in spots, Chris said, "Everybody thinks it should be cut. They don't like it long. I keep it clean. I don't use any goop, just water. I wash it. I happen to like long hair. It is too bad that too many people think long hair is only for a girl.

"People judge by first appearances. If you're going to be a pillar of society. . . . I don't consider myself a beatnik or a grub or greaser or anything. I wear these clothes because I have to go to work six days a week. I do wont to get it cut around the ears but I will let it grow long in the back because I like long hair. . . . I couldn't care what other people think. If I liked short hair, I would cut it short.

"I DO THINK that school is good and I'm glad I went and am still going. It's an experience you just shouldn't miss. We have practically everything in this society and it's really too bad. A lot of kids you talk to say that they wish they were out of school and it's just a waste of time. It's not like a privilege to us.

"It's something we have to do. We look at it as a punishment, kind of. As far as I'm concerned, in the last year, I have been out of school. In senior year, if a student has no particular goal, it is a waste of time. It is just electives. I'm going there to get my piece of paper.

"That may not be the right thing to say but it is my way of looking at it. . . . There is not enough interesting things to get a student interested in who doesn't have a goal."

WE THANKED Chris for the talk and he returned to his letter. Soon it would be time to do the dishes.

ART BUCHWALD

Polite New Army Is Putting Words Into Sergeant's Mouth

WASHINGTON—The chief of staff of the Army, Gen. Harold K. Johnson, has just circulated an order telling Army drill sergeants to clean up their language. In other words, no more swearing at recruits. The order came as a shock to most Army NCO's, whose vocabulary of four-letter words has been their only source of communication. Some sergeants were so thrown by the order that they haven't been able to utter a sound since.

But the military can adapt to any situation, and many drill sergeants have gotten into the spirit of the new regulation.

Just the other day I attended a training camp where the order had just gone into effect.

THE DRILL sergeant came into the barracks at six in the morning and shouted, "Wakey, wakey, everyone! It's a glorious morning and you're all invited out on the verandah to join me for exercises."

"Say, sarge," one of the privates said, "I'm tired. Do you mind if I sleep this morning?"

"Why not, Wozinski? It's YOUR Army. Could you meet us at the rifle range when you're in the mood?"

"I'LL TRY," the private said, "but I'm not making any promises."

"That's a good boy, Wozinski. Now, everybody out on the verandah."

Only half the platoon was dressed. The other half had stayed in their sacks.

The sergeant seemed pleased. "Well, we have more than enough to start with. I have a surprise for you men. We're going to march over to the mess hall together and I'm going to count cadence."

The platoon started catcalling and booing.

"NOW, COME ON, fellows. That's not nice. After all, I'm your drill sergeant. Why don't we try it? If you don't like it, we won't do it again."

"Smith and O'Malley," the sergeant said, "you're out of step."

"Out of step with what?" O'Malley wanted to know.

"The rest of the platoon."

"THAT'S NO WAY to talk to a recruit," Smith said. "We're doing the best we can."

"We've only got two feet," O'Malley shouted.

"I'm sorry," the sergeant said. "Forget I brought it up."

"Okay, but don't forget we're human, too," Smith muttered.

LATER IN the morning the drill sergeant held inspection in the barracks.

"Barstow," he said, "why didn't you make up your bed this morning?"

"I forgot."

"Suppose everyone in the Army forgot, Barstow? Then we'd all be living like pigs."

"Look," said Barstow, "a guy's got a right to make a mistake once in a while. I made it up yesterday morning, didn't I?"

"I SUPPOSE you're right, Barstow. Do you want me to make the bed for you today?"

"Suit yourself, since it bothers you and it doesn't bother me."

In the afternoon the sergeant announced the platoon would go on a hike. He ordered full packs, rifles and cartridge belts.

Three of the recruits drove up in station wagons.

"WHAT ARE you fellows doing?" the sergeant asked.

"What's the matter," one of the recruits said, "you never heard of Hertz rent-a-car?"

"Oh, damn," the sergeant said.

Just then an officer walked by. "Sergeant, did I hear you curse?"

"I was just muttering."

"It came out loud and clear. Let's go over and talk to the C. O. about this."

COUNTY COMMENT

By WILLIAM D. (BILL) FUSSELMAN

Here Is The Rest Of Assessor's Paper On Tax Trouble Of Elderly

FUSSELMAN

HERE IS THE REST of the summary from the assessor's paper, prepaerd in 1964: "Tax deferral is not the cure all for our older people. Any consideration given this sort of plan should be in relation to what the federal government is going to do, and what other measures the state may consider, and what the state and federal governments are already doing toward assisting the aged. There are two areas in need of expertise that the foregoing discussion has not covered. (1) What kind of state financing should be used, and its impact on over-all state borrowing costs, and (2) an estimate as to how much money would be needed to initiate the plan—and what the eventual build-up might be over the next 20 years. This would be an important consideration in connection with the state's long range financial planning.

"WE DID MAKE one calculation—Assuming that a retired home-owner's residence were worth $20,000, and its value were to remain unchanged, and taxes ran to 2 per cent of market value per annum, interest compounded at 4 per cent, and with an annual service charge of $4, then the indebtedness for tax deferral would be $5,044 at the end of 10 years, $8,413 at the end of 15 years and $12,512 at the end of 20 years. If 50 per cent of Marin's 'over 60' married couples and 50 per cent of its single persons 'over 60' (with incomes under $5,000 and $3,000 , respectively) applied and deferral averaged 15 years, then one might expect an outlay for this county alone of roughly 14 million dollars. Against this, what costs might government have to pick up if a fair percentage of these people were obliged to leave their homes because of the tax burden as well as higher costs of living in general? (Signed) B.W.B. February 1964"

I PROMISED YOU that, during the discussion of appraisals, assessments and budgets, I would bring you the story on action being taken in Sacramento respecting the overall problem, with special emphasis on relief for those on fixed income. However, there is no clear picture being developed there, thus making it almost impossible to evaluate the situation. There was one thing which somewhat astounded me. I received a report of action taken by the board of directors of the California Supervisors Association. They recommended no exemptions. Most certainly this should be referred to the boards of supervisors in each county before such a recommendation be presented to the legislature.

NEXT FRIDAY and the following Friday, just before the June 8 bond election, I will talk to you about Proposition A—the Hall of Justice and related matters.

REMEMBER WHEN?

10 YEARS AGO

San Rafael Board of Education members considered preliminary budgets totaling $990,930 for elementary schools and $941,316 for the high school.

Milen Dempster, project services director for the Marin County Housing Authority, reported to Washington, D. C., for duty with the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Authority.

Senior Activity Center Favored

The action will lead to a special meeting of the council next Friday noon at 2018 Fourth Street in San Rafael, council president Vera L. Schultz said. Committees will be assigned then to look into financing and see what other groups might be interested in contributing and in sharing the building.

The board of supervisors Monday is to consider a request for the Young Men's Christian Assn. to develop the site.

The senior coordinating council has a 99-year lease on the site, but if no construction is started there by May 17 of next year, the lease will be automatically canceled, Mrs. Schultz said.

She said she could give no estimate of how much the senior activity center would cost, mainly because there is no way of knowing what other groups are interested and how big the building would need to be to accommodate them all.

She also said that it must be learned if state and federal aid is available.

"I don't think one group should be given exclusive use of public property," she said. Perhaps YMCA and the senior group could put up the building as a joint project, she suggested.

Officers were installed by Judge Leonard A. Thomas of Marin Municipal Court, Mrs. Schultz assuming the presidency for the second successive year. Mrs. Rose Paul, George V. Banning and Hugh Cassidy were installed as vice presidents, Ann McCorry as secretary, and Dorothy Abel as treasurer.

Today's Retirements Into Uselessness Hit

A movement to have older residents "retire from retirement" was advocated last night by Richard Phenix, coordinator for the Marin Council of Community Services.

"Individuals must do their part, community groups must do theirs, industry and labor must pitch in, and so must government, local, not so local and federal," Phenix said at the annual meeting of the Marin Senior Co-ordinating Council at San Francisco Theological Seminary in San Anselmo.

Older people are assets to society and casting them aside "is not just an immoral thing in the sense that it destroys many of them, it also threatens democracy itself and also the good health of our national economy," Phenix declared.

"When we retire tens of thousands of people at age 65, we are throwing away billions of dollars in assets.

"At the same time . . . we devised social security and pension systems so that these newly unemployed (or retired persons as we prefer to call them) can live on and on."

These plans cost astronomical amounts of money, Phenix said. "As retirement is made compulsory at ever earlier ages, we throw that much more away, and throw that much more economic burden on those still working, to pay for social security and so on."

These plans cost astronomical amounts of money, Phenix said. "As retirement is made compulsory at ever earlier ages, we throw that much money away, and throw that much more economic burden on those still working, to pay for social security and so on."

Elders used to be an essential ingredient to democracy, supplying wisdom to go along with youthful enthusiasm and inventiveness, he said. But uselessness has been imposed upon older people by social and economic practices which are standard today, Phenix said.

There are cases of older people who are "dying not from birthdays, but from uselessness," he asserted.

He criticized mass solutions to the problem, pointing out that older people are not all alike and should not let themselves be labeled and segregated.

"Citizens began to talk in symbols, and pretty soon, all older people disappeared from our vision as people, and now we have today throughout the nation a 'senior citizens' problem," Phenix declared.

The master plan for older adults compiled by the citizens advisory committee of the council includes recommendations to eliminate "compulsion from retirement systems."

Inventor's Wife Sues Firm Over Frosting Device

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A $988,193 suit has been filed against FMC Corp. by the widow of an inventor of an automatic frosting device used in the manufacture of frozen confections.

Ellen S. Heise of Syracuse, N.Y., said her late husband, Walter E. Heise, invented the device and patented it in 1952. He died in 1955.

She charged fraudulent accounting in royalty payments in her action yesterday in U.S. District Court and asked $988,193 in actual and exemplary damages.

Her suit named FMC, a Delaware corporation with headquarters in San Jose and Vita Freze Equipment Inc. of Sacramento, a wholly owned subsidiary of FMC.

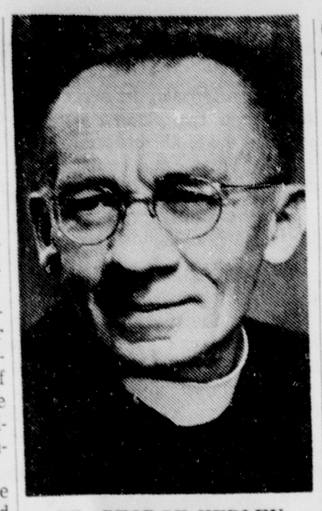

Actor Arrested In Attack Case

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Garry Goodrow, 31 member of the San Francisco satirical reviews, The Committee, was arrested last night at the group's night club and booked on a charge of statutory rape.

Police said a 17-year-old San Jose State College coed told them she was intimate with Goodrow Wednesday in the back room of a San Francisco judo school.

A warrant charging forcible rape was issued against judo instructor Melvin Stewart. Police said the girl told them Stewart raped her after the intimacy with Goodrow.

After posting $1,100 bail, Goodrow was released. He denied the charges.

COST RISE SLOWING

President's Lights-Off Policy Getting Around

By MARTHA COLE

You go around switching off the lights in the White House and somebody at the Census Bureau gets a new electric computer.

It adds up to this: The federal government's electricity bill is expected to rise a total of some $900,000 in its buildings across the country in the coming year. It was $20,900,000 last year.

It appears to be an embarrassing predicament — with a boss in the White House who's cut his electric light bill by a reported $1,800 a month — from $4,600 to $2,800.

However, the President's example may be responsible for slowing down the increase in government electricity costs.

A check today at the General Services Administration, which pays the utilities bills for some 6,000 federal buildings (out of some 9,100 such buildings) brought this information:

The electricity cost increase is due largely to new air-conditioning equipment being put in existing buildings.

Improvements in light intensity is definitely a factor (work output is supposed to improve with better lighting).

Federal agencies are installing more automatic data processing equipment, and this, too, requires more electrical power.

Of course, new federal buildings are going up, with more lights, more air conditioning and more mechanical equipment.

But somebody must be turning off the lights — or something.

The GSA said that in the past three years electricity costs had been rising an average of 6 per cent a year. For this year, the rise is only 4.3 per cent.

A check around town turned up no general directive from the White House, the GSA or the Budget Bureau to "turn off the lights."

However, various officials said the word had got around.

As T. Sutton Jett, director of the Capitol Park Service, which pays the bill for the White House, told a congressional committee recently: "I guess these things go beyond the White House. Elsewhere in the park system we are more inclined to turn them (the lights) off, too."

What are the rest of them doing?

When they're not scrubbing floors, women in Marin County are doing all kinds of interesting things. They're presiding, they're politicking, they're raising money . . . you name it. How to make your next raise a little bigger

After you take your wife out to celebrate your new raise, start putting the rest of it toward the purchase of Bonds. That way you'll keep on celebrating for a long time.

If you put some of those extra dollars to work before you get used to having them around, you'll never miss 'em. And that's the painless way to save!

With Bonds, you get a guaranteed rate of interest—3¾% if you hold them to maturity—so you're holding a worry-free investment.

Savings Bonds are free from state and local income tax, too. And you can even defer the federal tax until you cash your Bonds.

While you're building for a better future for your family, you're also helping your country spread a little freedom around where it might not have been yesterday.

So before you spend your raise, make it a little bigger instead with U. S. Savings Bonds. Like millions of Americans, you'll be mighty glad you did.

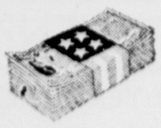

Quick facts about Series E Savings Bonds

- √ You get back $4 for every $3 at maturity
- √ You can get your money when you need it
- √ Your Bonds are replaced free if lost, destroyed or stolen
- √ You can buy Bonds where you bank, or on the Payroll Savings Plan where you work

Dorado Review Asked Of Court

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Atty. Gen. Thomas C. Lynch has petitioned the U.S. Supreme Court to review the California Supreme Court's controversial Dorado decision.

Hundreds of California convicts have petitioned to have their convictions reversed on the basis of the Dorado decision. The fate of most of the 55 men in San Quentin's Death Row may hinge on the final ruling.

"It is no exaggeration to suggest that the convictions of thousands of dangerous criminals may be in jeopardy under this ruling," Lynch told the Supreme Court of the United States.

He said the California ruling was contrary to other state supreme court rulings—In Illinois, Pennsylvania, Wisconsin, Ohio, Iowa, Maryland, Nebraska, Nevada and New York.

All are based on the U.S. Supreme Court Escobedo decision. That ruling held Danny Escobedo's admissions in a Chicago murder charge were inadmissible because he had been denied counsel and had not been told he had a right not to incriminate himself.

The California case concerned Robert D. Dorado who fatally stabbed a fellow prisoner in San Quentin while serving life for a Los Tngeles narcotics conviction.

The state high court ruled that Dorado's admission of the killing could not be used in court because he was not told he had a right to silence and a right to an attorney.

Lynch told the U.S. Supreme Court this was an unwarranted extension of the Escobedo ruling. He cited rulings of other state supreme courts to support his position. Lynch concluded:

"Confusion and unequal treatment will continue until this (U.S. Supreme) court grants review and provides definitive guidelines."

Phone Service Talk

Ross Wright of Western California Telephone Co. will discuss advantages of extended telephone service between San Rafael and Novato at a meeting of the Novato Trade Bureau, a committee of the Novato Chamber of Commerce, at 7:45 a.m. Tuesday at the Lodge Restaurant, according to Henry Puccinelli, chairman.

Moose Lodge Forms Chapter

A San Rafael chapter of Loyal Order of Moose, No. 1803, will be officially instituted Sunday at 7 p.m. in Portuguese Hall with 100 charter members. Quarters of the new chapter, second in Marin (Novato lodge was formed two years ago), will be at 10 Woodland Avenue.

Officers to be installed Sunday night are: governor, Kramer Herzog; junior governor, Hall Krinklaw; prelate, Donald Ruschman; secretary, Ivo Vollmer Jr., treasure, Richard Smith; trustees, Calvin Hall, H. C. Lannen, Elmer Rosenblad; sergeant-at-arms, Steven Marshall; assistant sergeant-at-arms, Richard Brasseur; inner guard, Robert Sheehan. Gerald Eastin will be named past governor.

Marinwood Lets Contract For Building

Joseph E. Redmond of San Rafael last night won a $2,380 contract to construct a 20-by-36-foot maintenance building at the Marinwood Community Center.

The contract was awarded by directors of Marinwood Community Service District. Redmond's bid was the lowest of six. Highest bid was $3,738.

Directors approved the 2.5-acre annexation of the Carmelite Monestary property at the end of Blackstone Drive.

R. L. Morton of 895 Greenberry Lane and Manuel Morris of 821 Appleberry Drive were appointed to fill two vacancies on the Marinwood Parks and Recreation Commission.

The resignation of Henry Biggers from the Marinwood Fire Commission was accepted.

Directors agreed that their next meeting, June 17, will be devoted to review of proposed budgets. The park and recreation commission was to have held a budget study Tuesday but could not get a quorum. The meeting has been reset for next Tuesday.

Sign Use Permits Dominate Zone List

Use permits for signs dominate the agenda for Monday's meeting of the Marin County zoning administrator, beginning at 9 a.m. in the planning commission chamber at the Civic Center.

Also on the agenda is a request by Robert Forbush for a use permit for a nursery school at 138 North San Pedro Road, Santa Venetia.

San Rafael Employees Ask More Sick Days

The San Rafael City Employees Assn. has asked the city council to increase the number of sick days employees may accumulate and has called for reclassifications of several jobs in the public works and parks departments.

The recommendations, made by the association's advisory board, include a plea for a change in the city's vacation policy, but the proposal appears to call for shorter vacations than are now given.

The association asked that employees be allowed to accumulate 90 days sick leave, with anything beyond this being reserved for a "catastrophic reserve fund." They are now allowed to accumulate 60 days sick leave.

Reclassification was asked for the public works jobs of maintenance supervisor, maintenance foreman and maintenance man I and II, as well as the park department jobs of gardener and groundsman. The group also suggested creation of a new position, sewer crewman.

The change would move each job up from two to four salary ranges, with resulting salary increases of from five to 10 per cent.

The vacation proposal asked that city employees be given 20 days vacation after 10 years service. However, according to City Mgr. Dan E. Andersen's office, they now get 21 days after five years.

QUESTIONER—David MacAusland of San Anselmo asks question at Standard Oil of New Jersey stockholders meeting this week in San Francisco about company's efforts to aid U.S. balance of payment abroad. (AP Wirephoto)

Stockholders Show Concern For State

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—California shareholders attending the first San Francisco meeting of Standard Oil Co. of New Jersey this week sounded more interested in what's happening in their own state than what's happening to their corporation.

They wondered why they did not get credit cards as stockholders.

Chairman Michael L. Haider said a contemplated Humble refinery at Moss Landing in Monterey County would not pollute the air.

Millard Murane, a retired Compton High School teacher now living in Santa Cruz 20 miles from Moss Landing, raised the question. "We are quite concerned about possible air pollution.

Haider said Jersey recently opened a refinery in the resort area of Jamaica and "We've had no problems at all. . . ."

Charles B. Kramer of Monterey County said "The people of Monterey Peninsula are violently opposed" and have formed the "Citizens for Clean Air."

The air is polluted where 95 per cent of Californians live, he said, and "Monterey County is the last clean air shed" in the state.

Kramer expressed fear the Humble refinery would "lead the parade that will finally blight the area."

Murane expressed similar fear later. He said that in 24 years living in Long Beach, where Haider got his start in the oil industry, he saw the growth of smog until it "became just impossible to live."

Haider told Kramer, "We are not interested in destroying beautiful areas of this county. Whether this refinery is built is for the local citizens to decide.

"If a refinery is built there, all we can do is assure the people it will not create smog."

Trading Shows, Mart Another Sharp Loss

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market closed lower today, taking another sharp loss. Trading slowed.

The market was lower from the start and widened its losses throughout the day.

IBM and U.S. Gypsum were off about 3 each, DuPont and U.S. Smelting about 2 each.

Zenith and Eastman Kodak dropped nearly 2 apiece.

Losses of a point or so were shown by Caterpillar, Kennecott and Polaroid.

Volume of the day was estimated at 4.6 million shares compared with 5.77 million yesterday.

Here was the picture near toward the close:

Losses of fractions to 1 or 2 points prevailed among leading issues.

The list declined from the start but losses were moderate. As the session wore on, some well-known issues softened as bids dried up.

Down about 2 points were such stocks as Eastman Kodak, DuPont, U.S. Gypsum, IBM and Polaroid. Texas Instruments sank early 4.

A number of recent speculative favorites, however, were driven down by profit taking.

Down a point or so were such stocks as Electronics Associates, Diners Club, Kaiser Aluminum, Alcoa and J.C. Penney.

Also down about a point were Pepsi Cola, Sears, Roebuck, Union Carbide and U.S. Smelting. Zenith fell more than 2.

Resisting the downtrend, Skelly Oil, Stone Container, Mattel and Delta Airlines advanced more than a point each.

BAN ON CARDS VOTED AGAIN FOR COLLEGE

Card playing in the College of Marin cafeteria is again to be forbidden, the college student executive council decided yesterday.

The council voted the ban effective next fall semester.

Cards will also be excluded from the new student center when it is completed, the council decided.

Poor Areas Consumer Information

A Bay Area group headed by Mrs. Margedant Hayakawa of Mill Valley has received a $256,251 grant from the federal Office of Economic Opportunity to set up three consumer information centers in poverty-stricken areas.

Mrs. Hayakawa, president of Bay Area Neighborhood Development, said the first center will be set up this fall in the Hunters Point section of San Francisco. Second will be in the Mission District, and the third will be somewhere in Oakland.

A main purpose of the program, she said, will be to teach low income families how to aviod making unwise purchases and paying excessive prices for goods they buy.

The group also plans research leading to the formation of consumer cooperatives.

Cartoonist Given Brotherhood Award

NEW YORK (AP) — Cartoonist Lou Grant of the Oakland Tribune was given a Brotherhood award today by the National Conference of Christians and Jews.

Fast Chase Flushes Two Men, Teen Girl

A fast chase by police after a black, unlighted car last midnight resulted in arrest of two Mill Valley men on charges of contributing to the delinquency to a minor.

The minor, a 16-year-old Mill Valley girl, was placed in juvenile hall and charged with violating curfew laws.

Arrested were John Thomas Norton, 23, of 26 Hazel Avenue, a former Muir Beach resident and Dale Irvine Kemp, 18, of 116 Locust Street.

Norton, unemployed, was arrested last August by Mill Valley police after a similar chase which ended with Norton overturning his car in a creek at Fort Barry.

Mill Valley patrolman Joel H. Newton was passed on Camino Alto at Sycamore Avenue by a speeding southbound car with no lights, he related.

Newton pursued onto Highway 101, then onto the frontage road, with red lights flashing and siren screaming. The speeding car finally stopped by the Hi-Ho Motel.

Newton said he found an opened bottle of wine in the car.

Norton was cited for speeding, refusal to sign traffic citations, failure to yield to red light and siren, driving without lights in darkness, and possession of alcohol in opened container in a motor vehicle, in addition to the contributing charge. Kemp was charged only with contributing to delinquency of a minor.

75 Marin Families Helping Support Negroes In South

Seventy-five Marin County families have helped to support Negro families in Mississippi, members of the Marin to Mississippi program learned at a meeting last night.

In addition, reported Mrs. Hugh L. Hendrick of San Rafael, three local groups have each agreed to support one family. They are the Tamalpais Valley Parent-Teacher Assn., the high school youth fellowship group at San Anselmo's First Presbyterian Church and a junior high group at the Marin Unitarian-Universalist Church.

Members also learned that eight tons of books, food, clothing and household goods arrived safely in two Mississippi communities after they left Marin last month by truck.

Five tons went to West Point, Miss., and the rest to Maben, Miss., said Mrs. Sue Forest, program co-chairmen. Books in the shipment, she said, went to a Freedom Library in West Point and helped form the nucleus of a similar library started in Maben.

The organization is mailing 4,000 pamphlets to Negroes in Clay County telling them how they can register and vote.

Mrs. Forest said the group now is looking for someone in Marin to donate a pick-up truck to take Negroes to registration and poling places, she said.

To Plan Ceremony

Representatives of Recco, the Mill Valley Youth Council, Lions Club and Optimist Club, will meet at 5 p.m. tomorrow at the center at Project 17 to plan opening ceremony for the city's community and youth center on July 3 and 4.

In Poor Condition

Jacob Whrig, 76, of 102 Sunnyside Avenue, Mill Valley, was reported in "poor condition" at Marin General Hospital today. Firemen were called to his home at 12:37 a.m. with report he had suffered a stroke, and administered oxygen for 35 minutes before Uhrig was taken to the hospital.

Dr. Carrigg Chosen By Heart Group

Dr. Norman E. Carrigg, Mill Valley internist, last night was chosen president-elect of the Marin County Heart Assn.

Dr. Carrigg will become president a year hence. President for this year, whose term will start July 1, is Dr. Leo A. Wagner of Novato. He will replace Dr. Marjorie E. Belknap in the post.

Re-elected were A. L. Nieri, chairman of the board of directors, vice-president Lawrence I. Kramer Jr. and treasurer Charles W. Geller.

Three-year term — Dr. Hillel S. Abel, Dr. Belknap, Thomas B. Lathrop, Dr. John R. Lee and Dr. Carl E. Schlichtmann.

Two-year term — Fred H. Brylka, Clifford S. Lund and J. Robert Phillips Jr.

One year term — Dr. David J. Costanza, Mrs. Virginia B. Davis, Dr. Conrad Ellner, Bruce Flanagan and Francis Jenkins.

BALLET PERFORMANCE — The Guckenheimer Sour Kraut Band, known for such records as "Music for Non-Thinkers," will be featured performers at the Marin Civic Ballet's "May in Marin Gala" next Friday and Saturday at 9 p.m. in the College of Marin gymnasium. The band will provide accompanying music for a satire on the ballet of the 1920s.

Touch Of Humor Planned For Marin Civic Ballet

Marin Civic Ballet will sprinkle a bit of humor in between the pirouettes and arabesques during its "May in Marin" performance next Friday and Saturday at 9 p.m. in the College of Marin gymnasium.

Featured in a program dominated by the classical tradition of ballet will be a dance satire titled "The Golden Moments of Ballet."

The tounge-in-cheek representation of the dance, circa 1920, will be accompanied by the somewhat energetic music of the Guckenheimer Sour Kraut Band.

The band has produced such records as "Sour Kraut in Hi Fi" and "Music for Non-Thinkers."

On the more serious side, the program will include the Snow Scene Pas de Deux from the Nutcracker Suite and Le Pas deQuatre.

Two new works will be presented — "Rustic Wedding" by Marc Wilde and "Twink" by Ron Pointdexter. This will mark the first performance of Pointdexter's work, the second for Wilde's.

North Coast Prep Track Stars Vie In Marin Meet

By RALPH CHATOIAN

Athletes from the North Bay League are expected to run off with most of the honors at the North Coast Division II track and field meet tomorrow at San Rafael High School.

Stars from the Marin Athletic League, North Bay League, Catholic Athletic League, North Central League, and a few from the distant Northwest and Humboldt-Del Norte leagues will be trying for berths in the North Coast Section meet scheduled May 29 in Santa Rosa. Top five finishers in the Class A and B events tomorrow will qualify for the sectional.

Tomorrow's action begins at 12:30 p.m. There will be trail heats in the sprints and hurdle races for both varsity and Class B. Following the heats, finals in all events will be run.

Sir Francis Drake High is the best bet to make the top Marin County showing, with a pair of fine athletes in Dean Lazzarini and Doug Manuel.

Lazzarini, a junior, won the Marin County 100-yard dash last Saturday in 10 flat, but has done better on faster tracks. He has ripped off a pair of 9.7's on Drake's own track and was clocked at 9.8 in Novato. San Rafael's track is much softer, and although great for distance men, it doesn's produce fast times for the sprinters.

Frank Watkins of Vallejo will be going against Lazzarini, and Watkins won at the North Bay League meet last Saturday with a speedy 9.7. But that was on the near-perfect rubberized track in Santa Rosa's Bailey Field. Also in the thick of things will be St. Mary's Bill Sapenter and Montgomery's Mel Gray, each with a 9.9 clocking.

In the 220, Lazzarini has ripped off a 21.6 this year although winning the event at 22.1 in the league finals. Watkins won the North Bay League finals with the same 22.1 clocking.

There should be quite a battle between a pair of North Bay Leaguers in the broad jump. Mel Gray, sophmore sensation from Montgomery of Santa, jumped 24 feet, one-half inch to win at the NBL finals last Saturday, beating Don Diggs of Vallejo who jumped 23-5¼. The meet record of 22-9¾ should be broken, although the pit at San Rafael can't compare with the pit at Bailey Field.

That 24-½ jump by Gray was the second best in Northern California this year and THE best by a sophmore throughout the country.

Drake's strongboy Manuel has a good chance to win the shot put. He set the Marin record of 53 feet, 2½ inches at the league meet. Frank Bendle of Hogan won the NBL meet with a heave of 53 feet, 2 inches, so this event could wind up as quite a battle.

Santa Rosa's Ron Azevedo ran a season best of 50.4 to win his league event and rules as the man to beat in the quarter mile. But Vallejo's Ralph Coronado has a 50.9. Darryl Berry of Tam has a 51.4 and Dan Dyer of Seirra has a 51.6

The half mile will pit three league record holders. Dale Stevenson of Hogan set the NBL

Players Lionized On Air Lanes; Tail Wagging Dog In Baseball

CONNOLLY

Wouldn't say it is about time the radio orators laid off Giant pitcher Jack Sanford. He seems to be the man of the hour, both before and after, and lately in between, ball games. His every word is taped for posterity.

To be kind to someone recovering from a serious arm ailment is fine and dandy but to make a hero out of him is sort of silly, Sanford's pitching circumstances being what they are right now.

Sanford isn't the only Giant player lionized on the air lanes. Not a single games passes that the home player, or the visiting player, who happens to have a good day isn't interviewed at length. And to me some of the questions are corny and the answers downright ridiculous.

"Your fast ball seemed to be hopping more today," they say.

"Was that a curve, slider, or change-up you hit?" is another favorite stereotyped question.

GAYLORD PERRY, Bob Bolin, Juan Marichal and almost all of the Giant players have at one time or another been on the air lanes and it is nice, because most of them are saving S&H green stamps.

Sanford, even when he is pitching his finest, is never a 6-5 shot to last. He's sometimes great, for short spells. Not even his manager, Herman Franks, has yet been able to tell, for sure, when he'll pop his cork and blow the ball game. It is becoming more and more of a rare event when pudgy Jack is around at the finish.

IT IS a friendly gesture for ball players to make air appearances during a World Series or All-Star games or even vital series affecting the pennant race, but the old guff of every day appearances gets pretty sickening as a steady diet.

S. F. is blessed with having two good baseball announcers and it is a shame they can't confine their efforts to the game itself and let the second guessing to us. After all, a baseball writer ought to be able to salvage some remarks of a player who hasn't already poured out his heart to the radio experts. If the baseball radio guys keep it up, newspapers will no longer prints the news, they'll be rehashing what the radio guys already served.

IF YOU don't think the tail is wagging the dog in the game of baseball, you're not hearing so well. Just imagine a pitcher supposed to be dragging down more than $30,000 in salary who says he feels he earns his pay if he can go at top speed for five innings.

"When I've gone five innings get someone else ready," or words to that effect, was the theme song of Bob Shaw on a pre-game radio quiz. And he was dead on the level.

THE GIANT pitcher, once rated a nine innings pitcher, then relegated to a relief role and now back again in a starting role, explained that after five rounds of airtight pitching he should be relieved and another flinger allowed to take over.

"Baseball and particularly pitching has undergone remarkable changes," was the gist of Shaw's interview. He felt genuinely sincere in saying he could pitch hard on every pitch and do a good job of it for about five innings. After that he suggested he had done his share so get the "water hot" and let somebody else take over.

SHAW ISN'T exactly a baseball socialist but he talked like one the other day. He gave the impression any pitcher who went that far in a game was entitled to bow out and feel he had earned his fodder.

If Shaw's theory of big league pitching is to be taken seriously then it is about time baseball player limits are thrown out the window and new limits enforced.

Countdown Near Zero At Indy

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Drivers and owners of cars not yet qualified for the 500-mile race at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway May 31 roll the racers out today for the final practice session before the last weekend of qualifications.

There was no more practice scheduled for Parnelli Jones of Torrance, Calif., winner of the 1963 race, who injured himself slightly and smashed his No. 98 Hurst Lotus-Ford yesterday.

Physicians said X rays showed Jones had no fractures, but they planned to look him over again today.

Qualification was no concern for Jones and owner J.C. Agajanian of Gardena, Calif. Jones qualified the car last Saturday at 158.625 miles an hour, putting it in the middle of the second three-car row for the race.

Agajanian said his crew would have the car ready to run by race day. He said the accident was caused by failure of some part in the rear suspension.

Drivers using Goodyear tires expected to run on tires from a new batch today. They included pole position winner A.J. Foyt of Houston, Tex., and rookie Billy Foster of Victoria, B.C.

Foyt, Foster and Don Branson of Indianapolis had trouble with tread flaking off Monday. Goodyear said the problem was one of production technique and rushed production of replacements.

The countdown was approaching zero for the two score entrants which have not qualified for the race.

33 FASTEST

Only the 33 fastest cars in two weekends of time trials will start the race. Twenty-one cars made their qualification runs last weekend, and the rest have only Saturday and Sunday to try to make the line-up.

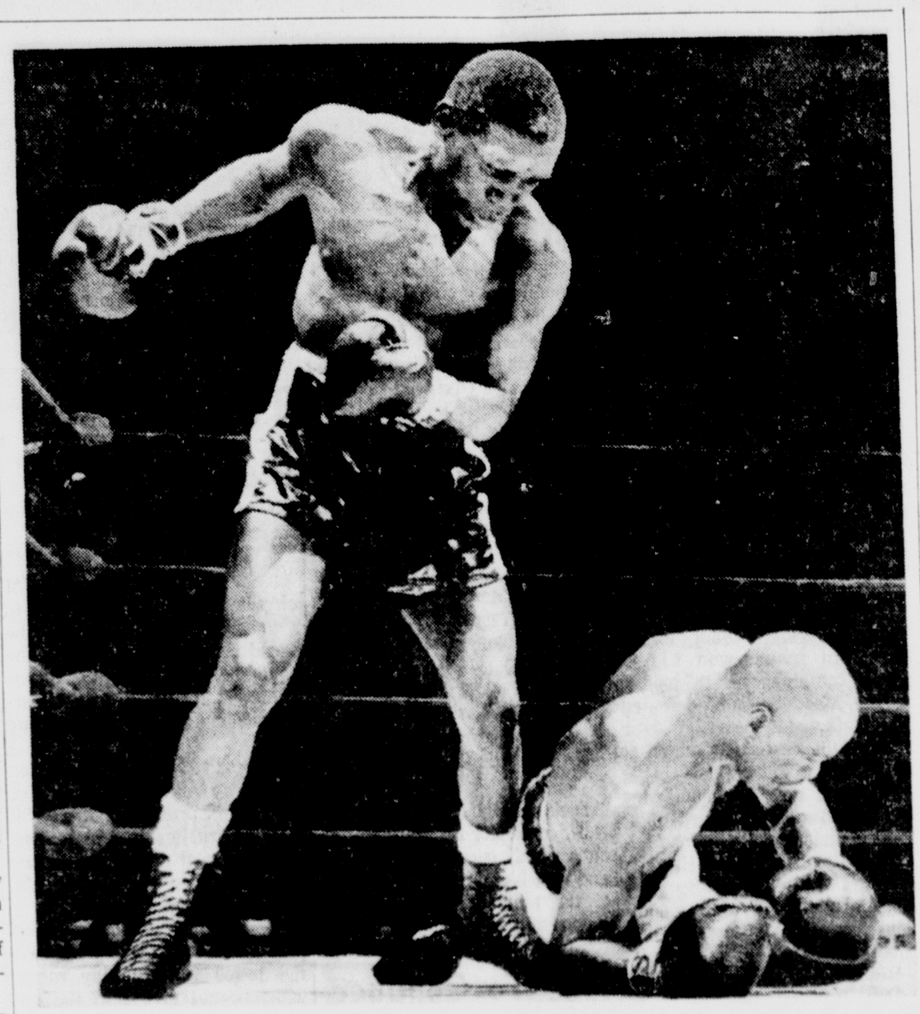

After 12 more cars have completed qualification runs, tentatively filling the 33-car line-up, "bumping" will start. A car still may make the lineup by qualifying faster than one or more of the previously qualified cars, and the slowest car will come out of the line-up.

A bumped car is out of the race. Its driver may still get back in if he can get another car and qualify it at a high enough speed.

Dan Gurney, Costa Mesga, Calif., had the best speed yesterday, 158.786 miles an hour in the Yamaha Lotus-Ford. The only other driver approaching him was Bobby Unser, Albuquerque, N. Mex., with 155.6 in his Novi.

U.S. Auto Club officials asked rookie Greg Weld, 21, Kansas City, to get some more experience before tackling the job of getting a car into the 500.

LISTON TAKES QUICK LESSON IN GEOMETRY

And Ernie Terrell — recognized by the World Boxing Association as heavyweight king — has mastered the act of muscling into the act by bringing the subject of the much-maligned fight to the attention of another courtroom.

It's all part of the late news regarding the transplanted rematch, banned in Boston, already postponed from last Nov. 16 by Clay's hernia operation.

Trainer Willie Reddish has a pet phrase he yells at Liston these days: "Shorten it, shorten it." Willie says he means he wants the ex-titleholder to make more diagonal moves intended to cut off the quick moving Clay.

"The way I see it, Clay is going to try to make Sonny come to him," says Reddish. "He knows that's how Sonny has to fight. So Cassius probably will be circling at the start, waiting to throw counter punches.

"All I'm trying to get Sonny to do is to use side-steps to get to Cassius quicker. If he follows Clay around in a circle, he could get into trouble."

FORMER CHAMPS

While Liston took it easy yesterday at his nearby Poland Spring, Maine, camp, for fear of getting "too fine," Clay played host to ex-heavyweight kings Louis, Joe Walcott and Jim Braddock at his training quarters in Chicopee, Mass.

"You're the greatest, Joe Louis. The greatest of them all," Clay shouted during his workout. "But give me five years, Joe, and I'll top your record."

Louis could only smile at the remark.

Undaunted, Clay moved in again and tried to get Louis to say he — Cassius — was the fastest heavyweight in history.

Louis offered only: "You're fast."

Walcott and Braddock are rumored as possibilities for the job of non-voting referee for the fight with Maine rules calling for three judges instead of two. None would offer a prediction of the fight's outcome.

All indicated they were impressed with Clay's workout, especially the final sparring round with James Ellis who was shaken up by a right to the head.

While Braddock wouldn't go into detail about Clay, he did say of Liston: "He's a short puncher for a big man. He's built a little like Max Baer, but Baer threw that long punch. The short belt can kill you and that's why I think he'll be all right for this fight."

The Clay camp reported Cassius received a package of Poland Spring mineral water addressed: "To Mouth Almighty from Sonny Liston."

Clay plans to leave for Lewiston by his now famous bus Sunday, and in anticipation of the trip he's having the vehicle painted with red and white metallic paint.

S.F. Fresh Off Win Over Cubs

HOUSTON (AP) — San Francisco's Giants get their first taste of baseball under glass tonight as Willie Mays and his cohorts invade the multi - million dollar domed home of the Houston Astros.

They'd better not become awestruck with the all-weather, multi-purpose structure for even though the Giants swept a four-game series from Houston last weekend in San Francisco, the Astros won 10 in a row earlier in the campaign.

Manager Herman Franks was not sure whether his starting pitcher would be Ron Herbel (2-3) or Bob Bolin (1-3). Luman Harris of the Astros named Don Nottebart (0-3) as his probable hurler. Harris won't be around. He was suspended 48 hours by National League president Warren Giles on Thursday for jostling an umpire.

Nottebart was the victim of Willie Mays as the Giants won the second game of last Sunday's double header 4-3. Mays drove in one run and scored two as Bob Shaw started his first game of 1965 and won it.

Shaw, the man who seeks to escape the bullpen, won his second start yesterday as Mays powered his 15th home run in a 2-0 triumph over the Chicago Cubs, salvaging the finale of a three-game series.

The 31-year-old right - hander gave up only five hits in seven innings. When Glenn Beckert doubled to open the eighth, Franks figured Shaw was tiring so brought in southpaw Masanori Murakami.

The Japanese left-hander shut off the Cubs without a hit that inning, striking out Billy Williams and Ron Santo in order. Second baseman Hal Lanier made a fine play in the hole and threw out Ernie Banks.

Chicago collected two hits off Murakami in the ninth but he pitched himself out of trouble, getting Don Landrum to pop-up to shortstop Jimmy Davenport for the final out.

San Francisco picked up its insurance run in the top of the eighth when Shaw sandwiched a sacrifice around singles by Hal Lanier and Matty Alou. Mays had powered a 3 and 2 Larry Jackson pitch to lead off the seventh and sent it into the left field bleachers.

The Cubs missed a big scoring opportunity in the fourth when they loaded the bases with two out even after one runner had been picked off first. With Jackson at the plate, a Shaw pitch got away from catcher Tom Haller after Santo broke from third toward the plate.

Santo apparently didn't see the pitch bounce to the backstop and returned to third. Jackson then grounded into the third out.

Shaw became the Giants starter when a sinus condition sidelined Juan Marichal for a second straight day. It wasn't determined when the ace right-hander would make his next appearance.

Laver Leads Masters Net

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Defending champion Ken Rosewall meets veteran Pancho Gonzales tonight in the Masters Round Robin pro tennis championships and he needs a win to stay in contention.

Gonzales leads their five-player division with a 2-0 record. Rosewall is 2-1, and Mal Anderson has already finished with a 3-1 mark.

A defeat would eliminate Rosewall from the semi - finals and a chance to retain his title.

In last night's action, Rod Laver beat Earl Buchholz, 10-5, for a 3-0 record and the lead in his division.

Andres Gimeno downed Alex Olmedo, 10-2, to bring his record to 2-1 and remain in contention.

MAJOR LEAGUES

Spahnie Routed In 'Homecoming'

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Some 19,000 Warren Spahn fans went to Milwaukee's County Stadium to see a great lefthander. And they did.

His name, however, was Wade Blasingame.

Blasingame was everything Spahn used to be as he kept the New York Mets off balance with his breaking pitches last night and allowed only one hit — Ron Swoboda's ground single with two out in the seventh inning — as the Milwaukee Braves ruined Spahn's return home, 7-1.

For the first time since opening day, the upper stands at County Stadium were open to accommodate the large crowd that turned out to cheer Spahn, who was unceremoniously sold to the Mets last season after 20 years with the Braves.

Some of the stuff was taught by Spahn, who tutored the young southpaw when he was called up from Denver in mid-June last season. Blasingame applied the lessons quickly and posted a 9-5 record.

However, he had only a 2-4 record going into last night's game but took that opportunity to put his best pitches forward while Spahn was drubbed in a seven-run fifth inning uprising that included a grand slam homer by Eddie Mathews, his teammate of 13 years.

SPAHN GONE

Spahn was out of the game when Swoboda collected the Mets only hit on a grounder back through the middle that Blasingame said he should have been able to get.

"I think I should have had the ball," he explained. "I had a shot at it but I didn't make any effort to grab it. The ball was hit right back at me and I just looked at it."

Meanwhile, unbeaten Bob Gibson won his eighth game as the St. Louis Cardinals whipped Philadelphia for their seventh victory in eight games, Gordy Coleman lifted his average to a National League leading .416 with four hits in Cincinnati's 11-3 thumping of Pittsburgh and Willie Mays hit homer No. 15 in San Francisco's 2-0 victory over the Chicago Cubs.

The Los Angeles Dodgers and Houston were not scheduled.

In the American League, Detroit outlasted Washington 9-8 in 10 innings, Cleveland defeated Baltimore 5-2 and the New York Yankees downed Boston 6-3. The other clubs were idle.

Spahn, now 3-4, had allowed only two hits when Rico Carty triggered the seven-run fifth with a double. Gene Oliver's double scored Carty before singles by Frank Bolling and Sandy Alomar and a walk produced another run and left the bases filled.

SEVENTH SLAM

Mathews proceeded to clear them with the seventh grand slam of his career and his eighth homer of the season. Carty's second double of the inning drove in the final run and wrapped up the uprising.

Swoboda's hit drove in the lone Mets' run, coming after Billy Cowan walked and took second on a wild pitch.

The Cardinals made it easy for Gibson, shelling five Phillie pitchers for 13 hits, including homers by Curt Flood and Phil Gagliano. Flood drove in four runs with a two-run homer and a double as St. Louis chased Chris Short and pushed across seven runs in the first two innings.

Gibson went into the ninth with a four-hit shutout but lost it when Tony Gonzalez hit a homer following a walk to John Briggs.

Coleman took over the batting lead from Mays by stroking four singles in five trips. Vada Pinson slugged a homer and two singles, drove in three runs, scored three and stole a base as the Reds punched out 14 hits against Bob Friend and four successors.

Sammy Ellis got the victory for a 6-1 record, limiting the Pirates to seven hits.

AAU Swim Trials In Marin

Some 350 swimmers from nine north bay teams will be competing in the Junior Olympics sectional qualifying meet this weekend in the College of Marin pool in Kentfield.

The meet is sanctioned by the Pacific Assn. of the AAU and sponsored by the Marin Pirates Swim Club. The meet will start at 9:30 a.m. each day, Saturday and Sunday. Admission is 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children.

The Marin meet will be one of four sectioned meets being held this weekend in the Pacific Association. The top 12 swimmers in each event from the four meets will qualify for the semi-finals and finals in Sacramento June 5-6.

Participating teams include the Ann Curtis Swim Club from Terra Linda, Voodoos Swim Club of Hamilton Air Force Base, Marin Pirates of San Anselmo, San Rafael Swim Club, Santa Rosa Neptunes, Sebastopol Sea Serpents, Solano Acquatic Club, Tamalpais Swim Club of Mill Valley and Vichy Springs Sea Hawks.

Prep Links Showdown On Monday

The once-beaten Redwood High golfers, heading for a showdown match with first place Tamalpais next Monday at the Meadow Club, defeated San Rafael 4-2 yesterday in a Marin Athletic League match at the Marin Country Club.

Redwood now has nine wins and one loss on its record while Tam is undefeated, with one tie.

San Rafael's Don Hawken equalled Marin's par 36 for nine holes in cold and windy conditions yesterday for medalist honors.

Results:

Sohner Softball Team Wins Pair

Sohner's Tree Service softballers of Marin, led by the booming bats of Dave Hughes and Bill Haymart, swept a double-header from Santa Rosa Blood Bank last night, 5-1 and 8-3, at Albert Park, San Rafael.

Hughes collected six hits in the two games and Haymart unloaded a pair of home runs as the undefeated Treemen ran their winning streak to six games.

Veteran Lou Perazzo went the distance on the mound in the first game, limiting the visitors to two hits. Brothers Morey and Gary Swarm shared the pitching duties for the winners in the nightcap.

Pony Leaguers Open Tomorrow

The Southern Marin Pony League opens its 1965 schedule tomorrow in Mill Valley, at Edna McGuire School.

Opening round games are Sausalito vs. Red Sox, 10 a.m.; Tiburon vs. Cardinals, 12 p.m., and Strawberry vs. Orioles, 2 p.m.

CARTER CLOBBERED

Tiger Challenges Champ Giardello

By MURRAY ROSE

NEW YORK (AP) — "Tell Joe Giardello I'm going to call him about that title fight," said Nigeria's Dick Tiger after he floored Rubin Carter and soundly drubbed him in a 10-rounder last night.

The 35-year-old African, who lost his middleweight crown to Giardello 17 months ago, plans to telephone Giardello this afternoon for a definite yes or no.

"John Condon of Madison Square Garden called Giardello Wednesday about his plans and Condon said Giardello told him if I beat Carter the title fight is mine," said Tiger. "I hope he means it. He promised me that before but so far he has been ducking me.

"If he says yes, fine. But if he doesn't come through I'm going after a title fight with light heavyweight champion Jose Torres. If I can't get a title fight I'm going home to Nigeria."

Tiger made a strong bid for the title shot with his lop-sided win over the 28-year-old Jersey jolter who lost narrowly to Giardello in a title fight last December.

Dick dropped the Paterson, N.J., contender twice in the second round, once in the fourth, and had him in trouble in most of the other rounds. After the second it was no contest, except for one flurry by Carter in the seventh.

The officials voted for Tiger by the following scores by rounds: judge Jimmy Riccio, 9-1, judge Johnny Dran 8-1-1 and referee Zach Clayton, 6-2-2. The Associated Press had Tiger ahead 9-1.

A cheering pro-Tiger crowd of 9-785 paid $37,790 to see the 12-5 favorite romp to victory. Tiger was in great shape at 163 pounds. Carter weighed 159.

circuit court order yesterday to stop Clay from claiming the world crown, claiming he alone holds the title and that Clay has diluted it by using it in advertisements for the forthcoming fight.

The suit asked $1.5 million damages from Clay and five defendants promoting the fight. Judge Cornelius Harrington ordered a hearing today on the Terrell motion for the temporary injunction.

Terrell has virtually been promised a shot at Liston should the latter win Tuesday night, which would give him the opportunity to test in the ring what he now claims in court.

Rookie Golfer Wows 'Em

By KELSO STURGEON

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — Mason Rudolph and Bob McCallister, the first round leaders in the $60,000 Memphis Open, are two brave men on a golf course but a lad who has been a pro less than a month had them shaking in their shoes today.

That rookie's name is Homero Blancas and he is the odds-on choice to be golfing's Rookie of the Year after just four tournaments.

Blancas, a 27-year-old University of Houston graduate, trailed Rudolph and McCallister by one stroke going into today's second round. Rudolph and McCallister both shot 65s in the first round yesterday, while Blancas and two others finished with 66s.

In his debut as a pro, Blancas picked up $2,425 for a seventh place finish in the Houston Classic. He then tied for 16th in the Texas Open and won $875. Last week at New Orleans, he was among the leaders all the way and finished in a tie for seventh for $3,200 in prize money.

There has been no man in the history of the professional game who has started so fast.

Others at 66 were Julius Boros and George Archer.

Jack Nicklaus blew a chance to tie for the lead when he three putted the 18th green and finished with a 67. Others who fired 67s were Dave Marr, Kel Nagle and Jack McGowan.

record of 1:56.9, Jerry Tallon of Serra established the Catholic League record of 1:57.5, and Mike McCauley of Redwood has the Marin record of 1:58.8

The mile run should be an exciting race tomorrow. Larry Houps of O'Dowd has a 4:26.0 to his credit which is second best to Mark Wondolleck of St. Joseph's who holds the Catholic Athletic League record of 4:25.5, one-half second faster than Houps. Greg Sparks of Tam is Marin's best with a time of 4:30.9, and top man in the NBL is George Scott of Napa who has a season's best of 4:32.4.

Dave Barni of San Rafael High has the Marin record of 9:50.3 in the two-mile, but will be in stiff company. Colin Munro of Hogan (9:34.8), Bob Waldon of Montgomery (9:34.9) and Mike Stone of Lower Lake in the North Central League (9:37.6) rate as the best bets.

Bill Robinson of Napa should be the winner in the 120-yard high hurdles. His 14.6 time is almost a full second faster than Bellarmine's John Reardon who has a 15.4 to his credit. Buzz Salata of Redwood and Mitchell Howard of Tam have times of 15.7.

In the 180 lows, Salata and Tam's Honor Jackson tied for the Marin title last Saturday at 20.6. But that time is behind four other boys, Stan Wise of Montgomery, 19.8; Reardon, 20 flat, Mark Moyer of St. Mary's, 20.3, and Robinson, 20.2.

When is comes time for the 880-yard relay, last running event of the day, Montgomery and Vallejo will be fighting it out. And it could be for the team title, as both teams are very strong. Montgomery won at the NBL finals with a 1:29.4 clocking, but Vallejo's anchor man was only two steps behind. Bellarmine has a 1:30.9 time and Drake is Marin's best, winner last Saturday at 1:32.2.

Terra Landa High School's Bob Watkins has a good chance in the pole vault. Watkins vaulted 12-9¼ to set a Marin record last week, the same day that a trio of NBL men were doing 12 feet. Bob Nichols and Jim Gariss of Montgomery and Mickey McGuire of Analy were the 12-footers,, although McGuire has cleared 13 feet this year.

Mike Martini of St. Joseph's has the Catholc League record in the high jump at 6 feet, 3¾ inches, and will be the one to beat tomorrow. Ray Stark of Tam, and Dale Westrom and Bill Rummonds of Montgomery won their event at the league meets by clearing 6 feet, ¾ inch. Westrom beat out Rummonds on fewer misses.

Gary Wittenmeier of Marin Catholic threw the discus 142 feet, 5½ inches at the Marin Athletic League trails to break a record that has stood for five years. But he may not even make it to the North Coast Section meet. He will be going against Bellermine's Bruce Naglee (178-0); Dave Minister (154-10¾), also of Bellarmine; Vallejo's Fred Hayden (169-8), and Santa Rosa's Mike Grace (169-½).

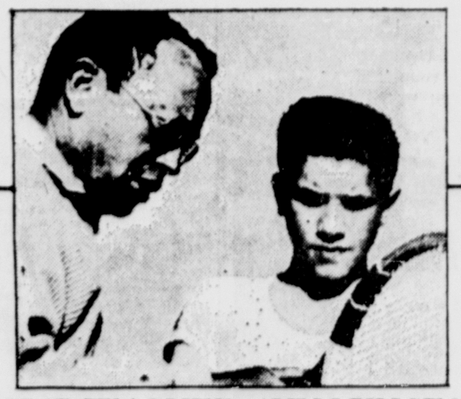

Tickets for the meet tomorrow cost $1 for adults and 50 cents for children. Programs, at 25 cents each, will be sold at the gate, said meet director Morrie Shepherd, Drake track coach and driver education supervisor for the Tamalpais Union High School District.

STEVENS

Happens you yearn to feel a rainbow trout on the end of your line, and are not inclined to travel a long distance to satisfy that yearning, the following central coast area waters have been restocked with catchable-sized fish:

Alameda County — Alameda Creek. Lake County — Upper Blue Lake. Marin—Bon Tempe Reservoir, Lagunitas Lake, Rodeo Lagoon. Monterey —Lower Arroyo Seco, Carmel River, Los Padres Reservoir. Napa — Hennessey Lake Impoundment. San Luis Obispo — Atascadero Creek, Chorro Reservoir, Lopez Creek, Reservoir Canyon Lake, Santa Rosa Creek, San Simeon Lagoon. Santa Cruz — Loch Lomond Reservoir. San Francisco — Lake Merced Impoundment. San Mateo — Pescarero Creek. Those are subject to change depending on water conditions.

By the way all anglers are remended that state laws prohibit littering in or near all lake and streams in inland waters. Seems that already flocks of citations have been handed out by the fish and game wardens, so watch your step. Bottles, garbage, papers and other trash is not only unsightly, but can create pollution conditions that are detrimental to fish and wildlife. If you intend to do any littering, better have $100 handy to pay your fine, or arrange to be away for a jail term of 25 days.

A REPORT from Ben Shintaku of the 60 Main Shop at Isleton looks good to me. As Ben writes: "In normal years the spring run of stripers begins to taper off in May, but not this year. For some reason we haven't yet reached the peak, but are still opening strong. Each week seems to be better than the one before. For the last few days Georginan Slough and near the Isleton Bridge have been very good. Best luck has been the bridge area, the mouth of Sacramento River, mouth of Steamboat Slough, at the San Bar in upper Rio Vista Bay, and all through lower Rio Vista Bay through Sherman Lake. Overall average: On Sacramento side, 139 boats took 331 bass to around 18 pounds, but the average weight is from about 6 pounds to 15 pounds. Fish are predominately spawners. A 10-pound fish is holding roe that is still quite firm, therefore most old timers figure the run should continue for another three weeks or longer. Lack of fresh sardines probably held the total take down. With fresh bait you may expect a good run for your money."

I have just been looking over a 72-page booklet sent me by the Coleman Co. of Wichita, Kansas. Lots of good information for the family who would spend a touring vacation in the family car. It shows costs for a family of four. Some good recipes for outdoor cooking and such information. Any reader who is interested if looking over the booklet, Simply drop a line to the Coleman Co., Wichita, Kansas, 67201. It's free.

LIQUID SUSPENSION CARS RATED 'FINEST'

I-J Special Report

INDIANAPOLIS — It was a great opening day show when qualifying trials started last weekend for the sleek looking low slung racing cars which were built by Joe Huffaker of Novato and sponsored by Kjell H. Qvale of San Francisco, West Coast British Motor Car distributor. Two of the Liquid Suspension cars qualified for starting positions in the May 31 speed classic. Both cars performed flawlessly in each run.

First to qualify was Bob Veith at the wheel of "Miss Los Angeles." Veith turned four 2.5-mile laps at an average speed of 156.427 mph to claim 10th spot in the line-up on race day.

Late in the afternoon of opening day, Jerry Grant, a rookie driver from Seattle, Wash. chauffeured the second Liguid Suspension car, the "Bardahl MG Special" past the checkered flag at 154.606 mph average. He will sit in the middle of the sixth row for the rich race.

At the completion of each trial run both drivers came in singing the praises of how beautifully the cars handled. Veith, an eight-year veteran in the "500" Indy race, called the suspension unit, "the finest I have ever handled at the Speedway."

There is one more car to qualify. Walt Hansgen of Bedminister, New Jersey, is expected to vie for a starting position this weekend in "Miss San Francisco." The car is being fitted with a new engine having more horsepower and should prove to be the fastest of the MG Specials.

While tire problems plagued many of the key entries at Indy this week, the MG Liquid Suspension cars went through heavy load fuel tests without missing a beat.

Riding on the same Goodyear tires that chunked under heavy weight loads the MG did not lose a step after 200 miles of brutal driving at high speeds.

SONJI CLAY SPEAKS

Champ's Wife Can't Help Worrying About Her Man

CHICOPEE, Mass. (UPI)—Sonji Clay will witness her first "live" prize fight next Tuesday night at Lewiston, Maine, when her husband, the heavyweight champion of the world, defends his title for the first time against Sonny Liston.

"I've seen some fights on television and in the movies, but I've never attended a real fight," Sonji (pronounced saungee) confided yesterday in an exclusive interview with this United Press International reporter.

Cassius Clay has been protecting his bride of nine months from newsmen since she flew to his training camp here in western Massachusetts Monday.

I approached Sonji directly in front of the champion's training headquarters at the Schine Inn while Clay was busy signing autographs in the lobby, and she agreed to the interview, "if we keep it short."

An attractive young lady of 24 with a ready smile and twinkling dark eyes, Sonji admitted she doesn't know how she'll react at ringside next Tuesday night, "especially if my man gets hurt."

"I hate to see anybody get hit or hurt," she said, raising a hand to cover her eyes from the rays of a late afternoon sun.

"My husband keeps telling me not to worry. He says, 'I'll be dancing, honey, just dancing and punching.' But I can't help worrying.

Sonji, attired in a neat black-and-white print dress, then revealed that the champion rarely discusses boxing when they are alone.

"We talk about us mainly," she said. "You know, our future plans for a home and a family, things like that."

A native of Chicago, Sonji and her husband spent the first few months of their marriage there, living in a small three and one-half room apartment. But if they never see Chicago again it will be just fine with Sonji.

"I'm tired of the big cities and all the bustle," she said. "I want a nice home — not an apartment — away from people. And I want a big house with a lot of land all around, and a swimming pool, and a swing, and a hammock under a tree... things like that."

Sonji Clay at that moment sounded like any bride of nine months. Wistful, bright-eyed and confident that the man in her life will one day make all those dreams come true.

Then, sensing that perhaps she had been talking too much and too long, she added one final thought before ending the interview.

"I can't wait for this fight—and all the worrying—to end," Sonji Clay said.

"Then I'm going to steal my man and run away with him and hide somewhere."

Some Hard Feelings At The Petaluma Speedway

Marin County's leading driver, Charley Louwaert of San Rafael, was suspended for an indefinite period from the Petaluma track.

Louwaert was the point leader. NASCAR officials haven't revealed the length of his suspension, although he will be allowed to run other NASCAR tracks.

Phil Kircher of Tiburon, who ran Santa Rosa's win Beaver into the wall, will also be looking over his shoulder.

Beaver, a veteran pilot from Santa Rosa, won the May 8 main event in bulldog fashion and was treated as a villian by the fans — and many of the drivers.

Kircher happened to lock wheels with him during last week's trophy dash and took Beaver into the wall, wrecking the Santa Rosan's car so that he couldn't compete in the main event.

Spaulding 33's Race Tomorrow

The Spaulding 33 perpetual Trophy Races will be held tomorrow and Sunday in San Francisco Bay, sanctioned by the Yacht Racing Assn.

Starting line will be near the Golden Gate Yacht Club, with the sailboats finishing near the Corinthian Yacht Club in Tiburon. Start is scheduled for 11 a.m. Saturday, with Sunday's time to be announced following the first day of racing.

Saturday evening the yachtmen will hold a barbecue on the lawn of the San Francisco Yacht Club of Belvedere.

'Outlanders' Moving To Marin City

Integrated Future Is Their Goal

By BRUCE COLEMAN

"Outlanders" moving into Marin City's cooperative apartments at Oak Knolls say they like the price and the view.

All speak hopefully of an integrated future.

Forty-two of the one to three-bedroom apartments have been sold. On a wooded hillside on Drake Avenue, they have many decks spilling with boxed geraniums. All have brightly colored front doors, cared-for lawns, garages.

When 47 of the 48 apartments are sold, the units will become truly a cooperative, as planned. That is, owners will have a voice in running them.

Ten of the 42 families are from outside of Marin City. Three-fourths of the dwellers are Negro, one-fourth Caucasian or Oriental-American.

Shop owners, students, teachers—why did they choose Marin City?

"In the first place," says Mrs. Paul Jones, "we have always believed in the brotherhood of man . . . the best way to prove our point was to live it—to move right in and pioneer. We were one of the first Caucasian families to move in." The Joneses, who run Top Notch Cleaners in Mill Valley, formerly lived in that city.

"There is no better view in the whole of Marin," Mrs. Jones said. "We're hoping this will become a true, integrated community. One thing we particularly enjoy is that, being older, we do not have energy when we come home to work on the place. This is all taken care of."

THEY LIKE THE VIEW—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jones, owners of a Mill Valley cleaning establishment, are among the "outlanders" who have moved into cooperative apartments in Marin City, say "there is no better view in the whole of Marin" than they get from their new home. (Independent-Journal photo)

"We came because we had a good impression of St. Francis Square in San Francisco," said David Wong, College of Marin instructor, who has lived with his wife and 18-month-old child in Oak Knolls since last September. "We like it because it's close to San Francisco. It's quiet. It's pretty.

"Right now we're going over the transitional point regarding integration. I would hate to see the situation where you build better houses on the hill and create another city like Berkeley with poor people on the flats and more well-to-do people on the hills.

"I would like to have its (Marin City's) image changed. I really think it has potential once you have the schools and shopping center."

Calling the present trend of move-ins "reverse integration," Edward W. Moose, sales representative of California Development Co., redevelopers, said, "We are now seeing the beginning of a balanced community of Caucasians, Negro and Oriental families."

Moose said 48 additional single family homes and 56 rental apartments are under way. Next phase of redevelopment calls for building 630 houses and apartments, for families coming from outside Marin City. About 50 "temporary housing units" remain and 1,400 World War II units have been removed.

Teacher Mary McKiddy, former Berkeleyan, said she moved to Marin City because Berkeley was "too crowded and smoggy." Too, she could afford it, she said. She has view of both hills and bay.

"People in Marin don't seem to be interested in Marin City," she remarked. "I think it is because of the connotation. I think it has tremendous potential . . . on my way to the freeway in the morning I find I'm meeting people from Honduras. It's not a set community. It's a constant surprise. And," she added, "there's nothing beatnicky about it. They are all hard-working people."

Another teacher is Mrs. Tom Rawlins, who said she and her husband, a part-time College of Marin student, became interested in Marin City when they heard about it on radio station KJAZ. They lived in San Francisco.

The Rawlins cite economy and view as reasons for moving. Mrs. Rawlins believes that integration may be a long process but "once it catches on, within a few years, people will move in very rapidly because of the terrific land value and view."

Lee Leary, custodian at Tamalpais High School, who is buying an apartment, now shares it with Don D. Cobb, Golden Gate Baptist Seminary student. They met as seminary students. Leary prefers buying to renting and said he likes a cross-section of ethnic groups "very much."

Gerald W. and Janice Johnson, who have a 2-year-old, live at 710 Drake Avenue. He is Negro. She is Caucasian. They moved to Marin from San Francisco and bought a three-bedroom apartment or "town house." "We like it fine," said Mrs. Johnson, whose husband is a landscape laborer.

Webster Jones, a deliveryman for Borden's in Marin, lives with his wife and four children at 737 Drake Avenue, having moved from the "Old Marin City."

"The places are reasonable, brand new, rent is not very high," said Mrs. Jones, who adds she does not drive and is close to the bus stop. "I don't think you can beat it. We're hoping Marin City can be a nice place to live in and any nationality would want to move in and enjoy staying here."

"I like it fine," said Mrs. Willie Fincher. "It's nice and quiet and we have a nice view. I think it will work out fine for integration." The Finchers met in Germany when he was a staff sergeant with the U.S. military forces. Mrs. Fincher is German-born. They have one son, 15.

"The way I was brought up, I treat anyone the way I want to betreated," said Mrs. Fincher. They have a neatly-kept three bedroom home on two floors.

Two families have moved out of Oak Knolls apartments since they opened, according to Moose. One moved because of divorce, the other because there was illness in the family.

Novato Commission Due Station Project

Chief George Cavallero reported yesterday that the commission studied the plans for the $102,600 building at a special meeting Wednesday night but took no formal action.

Teen-Agers Like Simple Jewelry Idea

Many manufacturers who provide jewelry for the teen-age market are beginning to realize that these young people have far better taste than some headlines might lead us to believe. They like the simple types of jewelry, often with a whimsical flair, and are partial to school jewelry.

For dress-up wear, "girls like to be girls" and tend to favor a good pearl necklace. Those who like earrings, prefer the small pearl or button type in gold or gold filled settings. The pendant continues to be a favorite, whether pearl or colored stone on a simple gold chain.

Bracelets come in the ever popular gold chain and caged pearl type or the attractive scarab bracelet. Bangle bracelets are attractive in the narrow or slightly wider type, some studded with pearls or colored stones. Then, too, there are flower-of-the-month pins in gold filled, whimsical animals, fishes, and sports emblems.

COOLNESS OF SEERIQUE

Russians Have Come To Believe U.S. Customer Right Policy

NEW YORK (UPI) — The customer in America is always right, they say. Now, in Russia the same holds increasingly true.

The Soviet Union since last May has been experimenting with letting retailers and consumers spell out what they want in ready to wear. Apparently it has produced benefits for all.

FOR RUSSIAN STORES now offer a "responsible range" of styles, colors, qualities and prices of clothing to attract the ruble, reports Radio Liberty, a privately supported organization broadcasting in 17 languages to the Soviet.

Radio Liberty's researchers found further that, with few exceptions, the price tags on clothes in Russian stores closely parallel those in the United States stores for clothes of comparable quality. But there's a hitch — the Russians have to work longer to earn comparable wages.

Even if the Russian woman and her husband work full time in industry, the couple's monthly income amounts to about 182 rubles, or $202.

The U.S. industrial worker, on the other hand, earns an average of $466.98 per month. That's not counting added income his wife may bring in.

ON AN HOURLY basis, the Soviet worker earns about 56 cents, while the American gets around $2.27 for the same time.

But, report the researchers, the Soviet industrial worker even with less income than the American can channel a larger portion of his money into clothes and other consumer goods.

This is possible because the Russian worker receives state sponsored benefits equal to about one-third his income, said Radio Liberty. These fringe benefits include free health service, subsidized housing, free kindergarten, low cost public transportation, and the availability of medicines and drugs at cost.

Kappa Delta Will Install At Luncheon

Officers will be installed at the annual luncheon of the Marin County Kappa Delta Alumnae Assn. at 12:30 p.m. tomorrow at Gregory's Restaurant in Corte Madera.

New officers are Mrs. Harold P. Boerst, San Rafael, president; Mrs. Kenneth Norberg, Tiburon, vice president; Mrs. Charles Allen, Greenbrae, secretary; Mrs. Norman Ashcraft, Marinwood, treasurer, and Mrs. P. C. Cochrane, Kentfield, Panhellenic delegate.

Cystic Fibrosis Meeting Planned

Speaking before the Marin Council of the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, will be Dr. Royce J. Truex, medical advisor for the Greater Bay Area Chapter of the organization. Dr. Truex will address volunteer workers and prospective members at a tea 1 to 3 p.m. June 9 in the Caroline Livermore Room of the Ross Art and Garden Center.

Mrs. Frederick Frauens, San Anselmo, and Mrs. Terry Critchett, San Rafael, have been named to the Foundation's Greater Area Chapter board of directors. Mrs. Frauens is also the new president of the Marin Council. Marin residents interested in the work of the council are invited to the tea.

Today is Friday, May 21, the 141st day of 1965 with 224 to follow.

The moon is approaching its last quarter. The morning star is Saturn. The evening star is Mars.

The German painter and engraver, Albrecht Durer, was born on this day in 1471.

On this day in history:

In 1881, Clara Barton organized the first American Red Cross in Washington and consented to serve as its first president.

A thought for the day—English Poet Chaucer said: "Boasters by nature are from the truth aloof."

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Englishman's Comment Is Different Elsewhere

If you happen to play bridge in England you must remember that English and American are two different languages.

Many English players say "No bid" instead of "pass" or "knave" instead of "jack," but the biggest difference comes in the comment at the end of the hand.

Opening lead — ♠ J

When this hand was played in a London bridge club, South won the first trick with the queen of spades and returned a diamond, losing the queen to East's ace.

RETURNS QUEEN

East returned the queen of clubs, and South won with the king.

South now discovered the bad diamond break and could only get eight tricks. "Hard luck, old man," was his partner's comment. It was a very British remark.

In the United States we would translate this comment as "Incredible!" or "How could you possibly mess that hand up!" The average American bridge player has only a small supply of politeness, which has to last him all his life; he cannot afford to waste it on partners.

REALLY INCREDIBLE

If you're looking at all four hands, it really is incredible for South to mess the hand up. Obviously, South made a horrible play when he put up dummy's queen of diamonds at the second trick.

He should play a low diamond from dummy and let East get nothing for his singleton ace.

Even if you're just looking at the South hand and the dummy, it is quite correct to lead a low diamond and play low from dummy also. South needs only two diamond tricks.

DIAMOND ACE

If West has the ace of diamonds, South can later lead diamonds toward dummy and win tricks with both the king and the queen.

If East has the A-x or A-x-x of diamonds, South will still get two diamond tricks even after he has allowed the opponents to win a cheap first trick in the suit.

The chief advantage of playing low, however, is that it protects declarer against the singleton ace of diamonds in the East hand.

DAILY QUESTION

Partner opens with a 2 NT, and the next player passes. You hold:

♠ J 10 9 8
♡ Q 6 4
◆ J 10 8 7

What do you say?

Answer: Bid three clubs, the Stayman Convention.

This asks partner to bid a major suit if he can. If he bids spades, you will raise to game in spades; otherwise you will go to game in notrump.

We all invite you to come and see us, we are a wonderful collection of fine homes. Our owners have all been good to us — most of us are homes built for our owners and to their quality specifications. See us, you may want one of us.

I am in MILL VALLEY in the Marin Heights area close to an elementary school built in 1963 with 3 bedrooms and 2 baths. From my porch you have a nice view of Tam. We are asking $29,000.

We are in SAN ANSELMO. No. 1 — I have just been completely repainted in and out — with 2 bedrooms and 1 bath, located in Yolanda area and only $18,750. No. 2— I am an older home on a large knoll close to a United Market. I have six large rooms with 3 bedrooms and a separate dining room. There is an adjoining lot available if you need it. $45,000.

ROSS is my location. I am older but well preserved. I have 2 bedrooms with 2 baths and have lots of redwoods and a lovely garden all around. $40,000.

The four of us are in SAN RAFAEL. No. 1 — I am a brand new listing offered for the first time and located in Harbor Estates. See my swimming pool surrounded by a beautiful Japanese garden. I was quality built by my owner with 3 bedrooms, 2 baths and an outstanding family room — referred to as immaculate, well kept and neat-as-a-pin, $69,500. No. 2 — I am sitting on a lovely 2 acre parcel, well landscaped with a pool and a panoramic view of the Bay Area. I have 3 bedrooms, 3 baths and a separate dining room, $69,500. No. 3 — I am high up in Country Club on 1 acre surrounded by large eucalyptus with a nice view of the Bay. I have 3 bedrooms and 2 baths with Philippine mahogany throughout and all for $72,000. No. 4 — I have an owner that had excellent taste. I was built by a contractor on a choice acre site above Country Club. I have 2 large bedrooms, 2½ baths, large living room & separate dining room — an outstanding kitchen with fireplace & BBQ large enough to handle a big buck — outside lawn area and patio with a beautiful view, $75,000.

I am in KENTFIELD situated in the perfect weather area of DEL MESA but still elevated enough to get a wonderful view. Built by my owner with quality requirements and modern design with Oriental motif. I have 3 bedrooms, 2 baths, family room and finished with Philippine mahogany paneling & special Shoji screens, looking over a radiant heated pool that is surrounded by lovely landscaping, $89,500.

The three of us are in KENT WOODLANDS — No. 1 — I was built 4½ years ago up high with a fabulous view of bay and valley. I have a huge living room, separate dining room, family room, dream kitchen, separate utility room, 3 bedrooms and 2 baths all on one level. Outside there is an enchanting patio sheltered by majestic redwoods, $69,500. No. 2 — I am close-in with a unique setting among redwoods with a lovely patio and landscaping. I have eight rooms with 3 bedrooms, separate dining room, plus activity room or lanai opening to heated pool, $69,975. No. 3 — I am up high with a picturesque view of Tam and the valley. I am sitting on a secluded acre of large oaks with a large lawn patio. I have 7 rooms with 3 bedrooms, 2 baths, separate dining room, family room, $75,000.

Come and see us, we know one of us will get you.

Survey Made In 1921 Now Causing Israeli-Arab Fuss

By LEO HEIMAN
Worldwide Press Service

TIBERIAS — Did the French and British surveyors who mapped the borders of British-ruled Palestine and Franch-occupied Syria 44 years ago use thick crayons or graphite pencils?

Did they draw their lines on one-inch maps or two-inch maps?

These are not theoretical questions of interest to historians but very acute points of current disagreement between Israel and Syria.

On March 1, Israeli settlers claimed possession of 500 acres of fertile land on both sides of the Jordan River. It was the first time in the history of Israeli-Arab relations that Israelis had crossed the river to cultivate land along its eastern bank.

In the fighting which erupted that day and which is still going on along the 30-mile stretch of frontier, both sides utilize tanks, mortars, recoilless cannons and heavy machineguns which contribute to the reputation of this narrow area as "The strip of death."

The trouble all boils down to the survey made by Joint French-British teams in 1921 to delineate the frontier between Palestine and Syria. If, as Israel claims, the surveyors used ordinary graphite pencils and two-inch military maps (two inches equalling one mile of terrain), then the Jordan's eastern bank and a strip of adjacent territory belong to Israel. But if the surveyors used a one-inch map and marked the boundaries with crayons or grease pencils, the Israelis are committing agression on Syrian territory.

Who is right? Unfortunately, the 1921 surveyors are dead and the original maps cannot be located.

Israel bases its claim that two-inch maps and graphite pencils were used on the fact that two-inch/one-mile scale on British military maps corresponded to the French 1:300 scale (one centimetre equalling 300 meters).

One-inch maps would have called for a 1:600 scale on the French side, and the French Army used 1:300 and 1:500 maps for detailed surveys during and after World War I.

Israel argues that there would have been no point to a joint survey if British surveyors had used maps with a scale different from that used by the French.

Concerning the kind of pencils used by the surveyors, the Israeli Foreign Ministry has produced official letters from the British and French War Ministries saying that thick crayon and grease markers were used only on acetate map overlays, not on survey maps themselves, thus indicating use of regular graphite pencils.

Though all this may sound very picayune, United Nations observers in Tiberias admit that it could well mean the difference between war and peace in the Middle East.

"A crayon line one-tenth of an inch thick, drawn on a one-inch survey map produces a strip of no-man's-land 160 yards wide in actual terrain," explained Belgian Army Major George Rohan, on special duty ith the UN team of observers in Tiberias.

"Under normal conditions, the countries concerned would divide the 160-yard strip on a 50-50 basis and erect border markers along the middle. But conditions here are not normal, and both countries are unwilling to give up the 160 yards, especially if control of this narrow strip means possession of the Jordan River in its entirety. It goes without saying that a pencil line drawn on a two-inch map leaves a strip of no-man's-land only eight yards wide.

"But it is not my business to rule which maps are correct, but to preserve peace to the best of my ability."

Viewed from the seat of an airplane circling to land in eastern Galilee, the Jordan looks smaller than an irrigation ditch. In fact it is so narrow and shallow a stream that it can be crossed on foot in most places.

Apart from its historical and religious significance, its importance lies in the deep channel furrowed by the Jordan in the course of many centuries between the rugged mountain ridges on both sides of the valley. This channel carries the water of winter floods and melting snows, hundreds of small mountain springs and tiny rivulets to the Sea of Galilee, which acts as a natural reservoir for Israel's National Water System.

Of the Jordan River's three principal sources, one (the Hasbani-Wazani) lies in Lebanese territory about five miles from the Israeli border; one (the Banias) is in Syria, some 800 yards away from Israeli outposts; and one (the Dan) is in Israel proper, less than 10 yards south of the disputed border.

A similar conflict over two-inch versus one-inch maps, and crayons versus pencils, erupted some years ago over the Dan springs.

The Syrians claimed then—as they do now—that one-inch maps and crayons were used by surveyors in 1921, and that the outer rim of the line must be regarded as the actual boundary, thus leaving the springs in Syrian territory.

Since this would have deprived Israel of the Jordan River water, armored bulldozers protected by tough Border Police and squads of sharpshooters were deployed to blast a rough track along what the Israelis regard as the international frontier.

Fighting erupted immediately and raged for more than a year, till both sides agreed to mediation by a team of Canadian surveyors.

After this team had consulted old military survey maps taken from French and British archives, they cams up with the answer that the Dan springs were 10 yards within Israeli territory.

The Syrians refused to accept this decision but the Israelis completed the Dan Patrol Road and sent motorized patrols to protect the only Jordan source they could call their own.

The Syrians shot up the patrol vehicles and the warfare culminated with Israeli air raids on the Syrian positions.

Now the same kind of trouble is brewing 30 miles to the south, near the two Israeli settlements of Korazim and Almagor.

Korazim was the site of a 2,000-year-old synagogue where Jesus Christ preached for the first time. Almagor is a squat hill dominating the Jordan's confluence with Lake Tiberias.

When Israeli settlers, spearheaded by armored bulldozers, crossed the shallow river off Almagore to plow the 500-acre strip of land along the eastern bank in March, the Syrians opened fire.

If the Israelis carry out their suicidal mission of planting crops and harvesting them under Syrian fire, protected by Israeli counterbattery barrages and screens of flat-trajectory tank shells, the ensuing battles may decide the outcome of the struggle for Jordan water.

Human Element Now Removed By Tax Trackers

CHICAGO (AP)—What the Internal Revenue Service employees may miss in processing business tax returns is unerringly detected by its automatic data processing systems.

Four regional offices spanning half the nation found an additional $30.3 million in taxes in fiscal 1964, says Commerce Clearing House.

These taxes were collected through delinquency leads on 185,000 business returns and accounted for over half the $52.5 million in additional taxes tracked down by automatic equipment during the year.

Magic Export Business Good

LONDON (AP) — Jack Hughes says his export business is booming.

"New York wants 12 of my magic totem poles and three sawing through a woman," he added. "Belgium and Puerto Rico have ordered three sword suspensions. Kuala Lumpur wants a cage for vanishing six doves, and a big new market is opening up in Africa."

"Magic has its fashions like everyone else," he says. "The current trend in Britain is for dog magic."

He Caught Fish Three Times

KINGMAN, KAN. (AP) — Jim Mills of Hutchinson, Kan., had to catch a five-pound catfish three times before he landed it.

Mills caught the fish on Kingman Lake but the line broke before he cound pull it in.

Mills, 78, grabbed the broken line with the fish on it and pulled it in. As he held it up for his wife to see the fish flipped off and back into the lake.

Mills jumped into the water, grabbed the fish with his bare hands and carried it well ashore —for keeps.

Army Uniform To Be Changed

CHICAGO (AP) — Green soldiers soon will be seeing green —on themselves.

The U. S. Army tan uniform will give way to the new lightweight army green uniform and will replace the tan entirely by July 1968.

Airman Wins Cooking Contest

PLATTSBURGH, N. Y. (AP)—A Plattsburgh Air Force Base jet mechanic won the Plattsburgh Press-Republican's fifth annual Best Recipe Contest.

T/Sgt. Edward Schiffler's entry was "Trout en Chemise." Schiffler wrapped five serving-size pieces of trout in a chemise of crepes, brushed with melted butter, then garnished the platter with lemon slices and parsley.

Hundreds of recipes were entered. Two of the three judges were women.

It took Schiffler 2½ hours to prepare his dish. It took the judges, officials and a few contestants who managed to get a nibble only three minutes to consume the five servings.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Venereal Disease Is On Rise Among Younger Persons In U.S.

VAN DELLEN

Syphilis seldom was mentioned in newspapers a generation ago. Venereal diseases were hush-hush and the subject was too delicate to put in type. The situation changed when health education decided that more could be accomplished by airing the disease before the public. The aim was a blood test for everyone and treatment for the positive reactors.

It worked, and the number of cases dwindled, especially after 1943, when penicillin came into being. Syphilis no longer was news and we became complacent. But it is on the increase among young adults.

APPROXIMATELY, 23,000 cases of early syphilis are reported to the public health service annually. Of these, 45 per cent are under age 25 and 17 per cent are less than 20 years of age.

The primary stage usually develops 10 to 90 days after contact with an infected person. The first sign is an ulcer (chancre) that appears at the site where the causative spirochete entered. The secondary stage comes three to six weeks later and is ushered in with a rash, sore throat, fever, and headache. The lesions in both stages are highly infectious.

THEREAFTER the disease passes into the noninfectious stage. These include 1,800 latent and 72,184 late latent cases reported in 1964. These are more harmful to the victim because the disease settles in the heart, blood vessels, and brain. By-products of late syphilis are complete mental and physical disability. The severe forms are seldom encountered today because of early detection and treatment. Latent and late latent cases have decreased almost every year since 1943, when 251,958 cases were reported. The government estimates there are 18,361 patients with neurosyphilis in state institutions for the insane. These patients represent a half-billion-dollar liability.

Statistics are misleading because many diagnosed cases never are reported to public health authorities. This is true of infectious syphilis because it is so easily treated. Another problem centers about those who overlook the symptoms of early syphilis and do nothing until the disease passes into the latent stage.

PERFECT HEART BEAT

E. H. writes: Is a heart beat of 60 serious?

REPLY

No—perfect. It is better to have a slow pulse because the heart has a longer rest between beats. The old ticker also has less work to do. A person with a rate of 80, for example, has a heart that beats 1,200 more times an hour than it does at 60, or 28,800 more contractions every 24 hours, etc.

HAY FEVER

R. P. writes: Is hay fever a serious condition?

REPLY

As a rule it is more annoying than serious. But some sufferers develop asthma. This is the chief reason why everything possible must be done to control symptoms. Send stamped, self-addressed envelope for leaflet on hay fever.

CORONARY ATTACK AND WEIGHT

E. M. writes: Do people who have a coronary lose weight after the attack?

REPLY

Not unless they are on a reducing diet or eat less because of indigestion or anxiety.

STORED MILK

Mrs. N. writes: Is milk kept in a vacuum jug five hours safe to drink?

REPLY

It should be safe, if it was cold and clean when put into the jug. Taste will tell.

SKIN PROBLEM

Mrs. B. F. writes: My teenage daughter has acne and has been going to a dermatologist twice a week for a year. It is very expensive and we cannot continue these treatments. Can you give me any idea to solve her problem?

REPLY

Discuss the financial aspects with her dermatologist. If a suitable financial arrangement cannot be made, send her to your family doctor or go to a free or low cost clinic. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for leaflet on acne.

CONTRACTED FINGERS

H. T. writes: Is Dupuytren's contracture inherited? My father had it and now I'm beginning to have trouble with my two end fingers; they don't want to uncurl.

REPLY

This condition runs in families and usually begins in middle life. The small and ring fingers curl toward the palm of the hand as a result of this contracture. Best results are attained through surgery.

MILIA

A. S. writes: What is a whitehead?

REPLY

A milium, a millet-seed sized, round, firm, white lesion usually appearing on the face, often on the temporal area, and below the eyes. It may be removed by puncturing the skin with a sterilized knife and pressing out the contents.

BRAIN TUMOR

C. A. B. writes: What causes a brain tumor and can anything be done to prevent it?

REPLY

The cause is not known. To my knowledge, there is no preventive.

Grand Canyon Flood Proposal Scuttled

By WIL LEPKOWSKI
Advance News Service

WASHINGTON — President Johnson has temporarily scuttled a plan to flood 100 miles of Grand Canyon as part of a large water supply project for Arizona.

The Budget Bureau, at Johnson's direction, eliminated the dam that would have turned half the scenic canyon into a lake. But it approved the rest of the project, which will cost $740 million.

In a report to the Senate on the lower Colorado River basin development plan, the bureau proposed that a special committee study the need for the controversial dam across Bridge Canyon, 30 miles below Grand Canyon.

Taking note of the president's repeated support of preserving the nation's natural beauty, the report said the dam would "alter the wilderness character" of the Colorado River as it cascades southward through the Grand Canyon.

Cutting out the $511 million dam was a victory for conservation groups. They had contended that it would destroy the "pulsing heart" of Grand Canyon.

The dam would have backed water into Grand Canyon National Monument and Grand Canyon National Park, creating a lake 50 feet deep.

Conservationists had argued that coal or nuclear energy could be employed in power generating stations to provide the needed electricity at the pumping site. The hydroelectric scheme requires stringing up 300 miles of power lines across the desert.

Congressional delegations of Arizona and California have supported the dam-building project, which would be built by the Interior Department's Bureau of Reclamation. They may attempt to restore the Bridge Canyon dam as the bill moves through Congress this summer.

Peace Center Sets Conference In Mill Valley

Alternatives to war as a means of defending Democratic values will be discussed at a two-day conference sponsored by the Peace Center of Marin at 8 p.m. today and 9:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. tomorrow at the Methodist Church of Mill Valley.

Rev. Robert Moon of Fresno, on the general board of Christian Social Concerns of the Methodist Church in the United States, and Robert Pickus of Berkeley, West Coast coordinator of Turn Toward Peace, will be principal speakers today.

There will be panel and small group discussions tomorrow on "What kind of work builds peace?" And "what do we need to know about the problems of peace?" The conference is titled "People in Marin and a World without War."

Both sessions will be held in Fellowship Hall of the church at Camino Alto and Sycamore Avenue. A registration fee includes lunch on Saturday.

Expert Says Wigs To Stay

NEW YORK (UPI) — Wigs are not a fad, according to Richard Hartwich, international wig maker famous for his chameleon wig which changes color with a color rinse to fit mood or clothes.

"When the wig idea first became popular, synthetics were sold everywhere," Hartwich said. "That was a fad. But the quality human hair with has become an integral part of a woman's wardrobe."

TELEVISION REVIEW

Negroes Getting Regular TV Roles

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) —Recent network announcements have confirmed that comedian Bill Cosby will be only one of at least several Negro actors to have regular roles on television series this fall.

Cosby got the most publicity because he will have equal top billing with Robert Culp in NBC-TV's "I Spy," a weekly show that will follow the two as they portray intelligence agents roaming the world.

Now CBS-TV has announced that its long - standing western, "Rawhide," will have a Negro in a regular featured role as a drover.

He is Raymond St. Jacques, 30. And according to CBS-TV, he will join Clint Eastwood, "whose starring role as Rowdy Yates has been enlarged to that of trail boss," and with British actor David Watson, another new regular, "to form an adventurous trio with typically diverse backgrounds."

Another Negro actor, meanwhile, will appear in a new CBS - TV series entitled "Hogan's Heroes," a comedy set in a German prisoner-of-war camp in World War II.

He is Ivan Dixon, who starred in the recent and much-talked-about movie "Nothing But a Man."

Dixon has been an active participant in the movement in Hollywood to get more major jobs for Negroes in television.

CBS - TV, it is said, considers "Hogan's Heroes" to be perhaps its hottest prospect for hit comedy status among its new entries.

The star is Bob Crane, formerly of the Donna Reed series. According to CBS - TV, "Hogan's Heroes" employes the device of "a running battle of wits between the Allied prisoners and their captors. The prisoners turn the camp into a nerve center for moving captured Allied soldiers back to their own outfits."

The announced casting of St. Jacques and Dixon, by chance, comes at a time when the Hollywood trade press again is a source for unusually interesting news about the Negro movement in movies and television.

MARIN FILM FARE

'Mister Moses' Now On Hub City Screen

By LES DARD

Here's the scene on Marin County movie screens this weekend:

TAMALPAIS THEATER

Robert Mitchum plays an amiable con man who carts a medicine show around the jungles of East Africa as a front for his real occupation: diamond smuggling. Carroll Baker plays the daughter of a missionary.

The story evolves around a native village that must be moved 300 miles to escape being inundated by the waters of a new dam. Neither the missionary nor the district commissioner can persuade the natives to leave.

But when Mitchum, the medicine man, shows up under the name Joe Moses, the chief of the tribe takes to him immediately and announces this Moses will lead them to the promised land.

RAFAEL THEATER

"The Rounders," now showing, is something special. A Western, yes, but more than that, a delicious comedy.

The story line is built around a couple of middle-aged bronc busters who spend their years rounding up strays and breaking them in rodeos, then blowing the loot on a big bustout in town. Henry Fonda and Glenn Ford do just great in these roles.

Action centers around a tempermental roan that refuses to be ridden, traded in, given away or done away with. The boys decide to cash in on his high spirits at the spring rodeo.

101 DRIVE-IN

In "How To Murder Your Wife," Jack Lemmon plays a well-off bachelor whose idyllic life changes very suddenly for the funnier. It is now on screen.

SEQUOIA THEATER

Starting Sunday is "Marriage —Italian Style," the sensitive, amusing story of a woman's long fight for respectability. Sophia Loren and Marcello Mastroianni star.

NOVATO THEATER

"None But the Brave," opening Sunday, is an offbeat war film directed by Frank Sinatra, who also stars.

A planeload of Marines crashland on a Pacific island occupied by a small group of Japanese soldiers. They clash a few times before realizing that although enemies they need each other for survival.

PLAYHOUSE TIBURON

Albert Finney plays a perfect Tom, adopted son of Squire Alworthy, in his unrestrained romp through bawdy 18th Century England. Tom is hot-blooded, irreverent and mischievous, but forgiven because he's also a charmer.

MOTOR MOVIES

On screen for tonight and tomorrow night only is "Ensign Pulver," the sequel to that little gem of World War II lore, "Mr. Roberts"— a sort of Pulverized extension of the original.

There's the ensign with the insatiable appetite for women, played here by Robert Walker. There's the captain, a martinet played by Burl Ives, and Doc, the crew's counselor, who is played by Walter Matthau. Tommy Sands also creeps in.

Co-featured is Walt Disney's "Savage Sam."

LARK THEATER

Still romping at the Lark is "Fanny Hill: Memoirs of a Woman of Pleasure. "The producers call it "the story of a female Tom Jones," which is less an exaggeration than it sounds.

Fanny is an innocent young lady who arrives in the London of 1748 looking for a job. The one she takes, as companion to Mrs. Brown, turns out to be in a house of ill repute.

FAIRFAX THEATER

The film paints a portrait of two kinds of people—those who drink deeply of life and those who simply sip.

TB Tests Slated At Hospital

Three tuberculosis screening techniques — skin testing, sputum tests and X-ray—will be used next Monday and Wednesday to test patients and staff of the Marin Convalescent and Rehabilitation Hospital in Tiburon.

One of the first of its kind in the state, the project is a cooperative effort of the County Health Department, the hospital and Marin Tuberculosis and Health Association.

The object of using all three techniques, explains the TB association, is to determine the best combination for TB screening this group of patients. While their physical disabilities deter usual testing procedures, nursing home patients have been found to have high incidence of tuberculosis.

Some 50 patients, average aged 65, and 38 employees will participate in the project. Monday morning, tuberculin skin tests will be administered by Dr. Carolyn Albrecht, county health officer. On Wednesday, public health nurses will "read" tests and positive reactors will be chest X-rayed in a mobile unit provided by the TB association.

Mexico will be host to the Olympics in 1968.
